IBM to Make Computer For SAC Here

The Military Products Division of International Business Machines Corporation announced today that it has been awarded a sub-contract for the design of an ultra-high speed computer for the Strategic Air Command's world wide electronic control system.

Engineering and production of the advanced-design computer will be performed at IBM's Military products plant and laboratories in Kingston.

The computer will serve as a data processing center for information required by the commander-in-chief of SAC and his staff in planning, directing and controlling the global peacetime and wartime operations of the Strategic Air Command. Designed for reliability in round-the-clock SAC operations, the compact computer will be transistorized and will use ultra-high speed magnetic memories for instantaneous data processing.

The contract for the computer system and design engineering of the SAC computer was awarded to IBM by International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, which recently announced the establishment of the International Electric Corporation to manage the production of the SAC system. The world-wide electronic control system will transmit, process through the IBM computer, and display information essential to SAC operations.

Killing Criminals Necessary: Castro

HAVANA, Cuba (AP) — Rebel leader Fidel Castro contends the executions springing from his civil war victory are necessary to purify Cuba after six years of dictatorial rule.

The future course of the revolutionary purge was a subject of conflicting statements, but Castro made clear in a speech Tuesday night he considers the shooting of "war criminals" justified.

Criticism Mounts

Amid mounting criticism abroad, rebel firing squads have executed more than 150 persons on charges of murder, torture and other crimes during the regime of President Fulgencio Batista, who fled two weeks ago. It is estimated 3,000 others face summary court trials, many of which have been held in secret.

Castro, now chief of the Cuban armed forces, took note of an adverse reaction within the United States in his speech to the Havana Lions Club.

Questions Batista Attitude

"Why didn't the Americans attack when the Batista government was executing people en masse?" he asked.

Those who have killed now were executed to demonstrate that they could not get away with murder and crimes against the people, Castro said.

A similar defense had been offered in a press statement by the provisional government's foreign minister, Roberto Agramonte.

Agramonte declared that if the new regime did not mete out swift justice, the people would take the law into their own hands to avenge the torture and murder of an estimated 20,000 Cubans by Batista police and troops.

Denies Suspension

A presidential palace spokesman was quoted Tuesday night by a government press source as saying the government had ordered the suspension of all executions. The order was reported to have followed a conference between Castro and the man he installed as provisional president, Manuel Urrutia.

Shultis Forsees More Severe Cold Late in January

Speaking of the weather, The Freeman has received a communication from Thomas Shultis, the noted Bearsville weather prophet, now vacationing in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., cautioning that Ulster County can expect some pretty cold days before the winter is over.

"Tell the folks," Shultis writes, "they have another bad spell, with cold coming up, the last week of January."

Heavy Rains in Florida

With that cheerful tidbit the prophet goes on to say that Fort Lauderdale had a bad storm the day after Christmas when 12 inches of rain fell within 10 hours. "Some streets were under 2 1/2 feet of water," he said.

He writes that he is "keeping my eye on the weather at home, and working on my forecast for the summer, which I will have ready about April 1."

"I also notice that the new moon is on its back for the winter, which was part of my forecast."

Mr. and Mrs. Shultis have been in Florida since December 2, report they are enjoying their stay although the weather is very cool with an average temperature of 59 degrees so far this winter.

Yarish Is Charged With Murder, 1st In Columbia Case

LIVINGSTON, N. Y. (AP) — A 16-year-old youth has been charged with first-degree murder in the hammer-slaying of a fellow farm-worker.

Richard Yarish, who originally had been charged with assault, waived examination Tuesday at his arraignment before Justice of the Peace Gustave Brink and was sent to the Columbia County Jail to await grand jury action.

State Police said Yarish struck Fred Waldorf, 36, on the head with a hammer Jan. 7 when Waldorf discovered the youth stealing an automobile at the farm near Crayville where they worked.

Yarish was arrested near Schenectady several hours after he fled. Waldorf died the next day.

Rocky, Leaders Agree Smokes Tax Must Rise

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller and the Legislature's Republican leaders have agreed, at least tentatively, to seek an increase in the state's cigarette tax, it was learned today.

Highly placed sources told The Associated Press that the Republican governor and the leaders had decided the tax must be raised to help plug what he called a 230-million-dollar hole in the state budget.

They have not decided yet, however, whether the tax should be boosted by one cent or two cents a package. The levy now is three cents.

Rockefeller disclosed Monday night that he and the leaders had discussed raising the tax but said no final decision had been made.

Well-posted sources said the move now was "set" and that only the amount was to be determined. This depends largely on what changes in the income tax plan might be proposed.

It was understood that Rockefeller was holding off an announcement on the cigarette tax until the income tax question is settled.

For each penny the cigarette tax was raised, the state would gain about 25 million dollars in annual revenue. A two-cent increase thus would return 50 million dollars.

Rockefeller already has come out for increases in the motor fuel taxes—from four to six cents a gallon on gasoline and from six to nine cents on diesel fuel. This would yield about 60 million more for the state.

The governor and the legislative leaders have been discussing various ways of increasing the income tax yield, including a general boost in rates, changes in exemptions and a payroll withholding plan.

Rockefeller has estimated that he would gain 35 million dollars (Continued on Page 12, Col. 6)

First Legislature Session of 1777 To Be Reenacted Here

A 10-gun salute, one for each of the 10 original counties represented in the first session of the New York State Legislature at Kingston's famous Senate House on Clinton Avenue, will be fired next Tuesday, Jan. 20, at opening ceremonies for New York's Year of History.

Fifteen state Senators, representing the 10 original counties, will sit in session at the Senate House, reenacting the organizational session of that body on Sept. 10, 1777.

Senators Due 12:30

Alexander Yosman, secretary of Ulster County's 350th Hudson-Champlain Committee, said today that upon arrival of the Senators, about 11:30 a. m., a wreath would be placed at the foot of the Henry Hudson statue on Academy Green with dedication remarks by the chairman of the Senate group. The official county anniversary flag will be unfurled.

At 1:30 p. m. the Senators will be met by an honor guard detail of officers and men of the 156th Field Artillery Battalion, New York National Guard, under command of Lt. Col. Frank H. Harkin, and escorted to the Senate House.

Used At Rockys Inaugural

When the Senate convenes the Guardsmen will fire a 10-gun salute from two 105 millimeter Howitzers. These guns are the type used frequently for ceremonial purposes. The local Howitzers were used at inauguration ceremonies for Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller recently.

Yosman said the public is cordially invited to attend the ceremonies. Other members of the committee are Albert Kurdt, chairman, and Edward Huben, vice chairman.

Yosman told The Freeman that cooperation in planning the program had been excellent. The Kingston High School Band under the direction of Marlin E. Morrette will begin the program at 11 a. m.

Others May Take Part

Various veteran organizations, as well as the Boy and Girl Scouts, have also been invited to participate by having color guards present.

The year 1777 was very important to the future welfare of the state and nation. The first constitution of New York State (Continued on Page 12, Col. 2)

Woman Is Slain in Dutchess Estranged Mate, Who Has Record, Sought in Woods

DOVER PLAINS, N. Y. (AP)—A 19-year-old tavern waitress was slain by her estranged husband with eight rifle shots today, Dutchess County Sheriff C. Fred Close said.

Dead was Mrs. Patricia Webster of the nearby town of Washington, who worked at a tavern here.

Warned of Gunplay

State troopers and eight deputy sheriffs searched a wooded area near the tavern for the woman's husband, Stanley, 20, of Dover Plains.

The sheriff said the husband was believed to be carrying the rifle, and the officers were warned of the possibility of gunplay.

The woman was shot in her employer's station wagon, in which she was to have been driven home after work.

The sheriff said Webster has an arrest record.

Account of Shooting

The sheriff gave this account of the shooting:

Mrs. Webster finished work at the tavern at 1 a. m. and entered a station wagon owned by her employer, Joseph Ducillo, who was to drive her home.

The husband, who had been waiting nearby, ordered Ducillo out of the station wagon at gunpoint.

Ducillo ran toward the tavern to phone to state police. Webster fired one shot at the tavern. He then fired seven shots into the station wagon. One bullet hit his wife in the head, killing her.

The couple has a two-year-old son.

U.S. May Modify Policy on Germany

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States may be willing to modify its policy on German reunification if it can get West Germany and other Allies to agree on some revised formula.

The whole German situation is under intensive review in the State Department in preparation for new exchanges on the subject with the Soviet government.

Subjects for Saturday

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles expect to discuss Germany, including Berlin and the reunification problem, in talks with Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan Friday and Saturday.

Dulles gave the tipoff on possible modification of the U. S. stand at a news conference Tuesday. He said reunification of East and West Germany through free elections—the formula the Allies have backed for years—is not the only method by which East and West Germany could be merged. But he declined under questioning to specify what other methods were possible.

Opposes Any Alteration

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has always opposed any alteration of this formula.

The Soviet government—in spite of an apparent agreement to split elections at Geneva in 1955—has insisted on a merger worked out directly between the East and West German regimes.

The end result of current State Department discussions, subject (Continued on Page 12, Col. 5)

Man Is Booked On New Charge; Faces Jury on 1st

A few hours after he waived examination in city court Tuesday night on a second degree assault charge John DeWitt Mertine, 19, of 108 Murray Street, was booked on a third degree assault charge on complaint of his sister, Joan Mertine.

City Judge Aaron E. Klein today imposed a suspended sentence of 30 days in jail on the second charge and placed him on probation for 90 days. He faces grand jury action on the second degree assault charge.

Says Sister Struck

Police said Mertine was charged with striking his sister in a downtown tavern after she had attempted to get him to go home so he would not get into further trouble.

The first charge dates back to Dec. 21 when Mertine and Francis Patrick Mooney, 22, of 188 Pine Street, were charged with assaulting John Cassa outside of his Van Buren Street tavern after a dispute over ID (identification) cards.

Mooney waived examination and was held for the grand jury shortly after the arrest. He is (Continued on Page 12, Col. 2)

Woman Is Held In $5,000 Bail On Kidnap Count

NEW YORK (AP)—"... Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us."

Frank Chionchio, 28, ecstatic over the safe return of his kidnapped infant daughter, was lifted by his compassion for her alleged abductor to a height of human forgiveness Tuesday.

He asked that no charge be pressed against the accused woman.

But the law was unyielding. Chionchio was persuaded to sign the complaint.

The woman, Mrs. Jean Lavarene, 43, twice-married widow, was held in $5,000 bail on a kidnapping charge, which carries a maximum penalty on conviction of 20 years to life in prison. She is in jail in lieu of bail.

Magistrate James A. Roe Jr. denied a request by the woman's attorney that she be committed for mental observation.

The request can be renewed when she appears in court again Jan. 20.

Nervous at Arraignment

Mrs. Lavarene, mother of seven living children by her two marriages, was not called upon to speak during her brief arraignment. Her hands trembled as she listened to the court proceedings.

She is accused of taking Lisa Rose Chionchio from a nursery in St. Peter's Hospital, Brooklyn, Jan. 2, 2 1/2 hours after the child's birth.

A telephone tip Sunday led police to the woman's small Brooklyn apartment, where they found the baby alive and healthy, to dynamite one of the largest manxims ever staged in this city.

Witness Is Compelled To Testify Just Took Shirts To Sick Barbara, Guarneri Recalls

By The Associated Press
NEW YORK (AP) — A witness has finally been compelled to testify about the gangland convention at Upstate Apalachin. On this basis the chairman of the State Commission of Investigation reports a slim "breakthrough" in the probe of what went on at the meeting.

The witness, Anthony Guarneri, 47, of Endwell, was called back for further questioning before the commission granted him immunity from prosecution on the basis of anything he said. At first he attempted to invoke various constitutional provisions to avoid testifying.

Seven Others in Jail

Seven other men listed by authorities among the three-score who attended the Apalachin meeting have been jailed here since August for contempt for refusing to testify about the convulse of underworld figures and associates Nov. 14, 1957. They also had been offered immunity.

Called as witnesses Wednesday along with Guarneri were Stefan Magaddino of Niagara Falls, Samuel Lagatutta of Buffalo, and Joseph Profaci, of Brooklyn, known as the "Olive Oil King."

During recess of the questioning of Guarneri Tuesday, Commission Chairman Jacob Grumet said:

Doesn't Believe Story

"His testifying is a breakthrough, though I don't believe his story."

Various descriptions have been given on the Apalachin convention at the palatial estate of Joseph Barbara Sr. It has been called a friendly get-together of old pals to cheer up the ailing Barbara; or a top-level conference of the American branch of the Mafia, the international crime and terrorist syndicate that had its roots in Sicily.

Guarneri, a shirt and dress dealer, told the investigation commission that shirts figured prominently in his visit to the Barbara estate on the day of the underworld convention.

Guarneri told this story:

On the morning of the Apalachin meeting he happened to meet a friend, Patsy Turrigiano, in a (Continued on Page 12, Col. 6)

The appointment is effective Jan. 29. The post pays $15,300 a year.

Gallman will be the department's director of administration. He will also continue to supervise its public relations, which he has handled since 1943.

Chamber Elects Stang; Opposes State Tax Plan

Attorney Frederick H. Stang was elected as president of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce for 1959 at an exceptionally well attended organization meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night at the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The directors also approved a committee recommendation to oppose the proposed state withholding tax on personal incomes.

Arthur W. Patterson was elected as a director to fill the unexpired term of Robert J. Dalton whose resignation was accepted with regret. Dalton, local manager of the New York Telephone Company, is moving to Albany, having accepted a position with the telephone company in Albany.

The meeting was attended by all seven of the recently elected directors, namely, W. J. C. Buddenham, Ronald G. Downs, Charles Forst, Burton L. Haver, Oscar J. Lawatsch, Joseph E. O'Connor and Sam Pepper.

Handsome Chambers School Serves Area North of City

The Chambers School, one of five rural attendance area centers under the enlarged city district, was designed by Architect Albert E. Milliken and built in 1955 on a 18-acre plot purchased from A. H. Chambers for whom the school was later named.

The modern, functional plant, with facilities and out-of-door areas has been planned as one comprehensive educational plan reflecting the needs of the children, the community and a sound educational program.

Reginald Russell is principal of the school. The building consists of 18 classrooms, two kindergartens, a general purpose room for cafeteria and community use, a library, a gymnasium-auditorium combination for school and community use, a health unit, lockers, rooms with showers for girls and boys, a teachers' room, administrative offices and the necessary custodial, storage and service rooms.

Planned for Sunlight

The building is planned with a north and south axis to obtain sunlight in each space at some period of the day. It is placed sufficiently back from the main highway to obtain ample approach for buses and cars with a minimum of noise from the main highway.

The primary grades are housed in the south wing and the upper grades in the north wing, with the administration offices, gymnasium, library and all purpose room between the two wings for easy access of pupils and community.

All classrooms are designed the same size and shape to provide for multiple use as well as affording opportunity for individual, group or entire class activity. Each classroom has its own door to the outside both as a safety factor for rapid evacuation and for quick access to the outdoor areas.

Modern Facilities

Each classroom is 30 feet square and equipped with coat and storage facilities, built-in sink with adjacent work areas, drinking fountain, chalkboards, bulletin boards, acoustical ceiling, resilient flooring and movable desks and chairs to provide flexibility of arrangement for special group activities. All except two classrooms have individual toilets.

The site consisting of 19 acres has the northern and eastern portions landscaped with portions used for entrance roads.

building and blacktopped parking areas, while the southern portion is retained as a play area for primary children. This portion is equipped with swings, jungle gym, monkey bars and slides. The western portion of about 10 acres is used for athletics and recreational facilities. Pedestrian access is provided from the housing development to the north and south so as to eliminate traffic hazards.

The construction is of fire-resistant masonry and concrete with face brick walls. Window casings are of aluminum. The ceilings of all rooms are acoustically treated. The materials were selected for economy, non-destructibility, permanency and minimum of maintenance. Attractive pastel color schemes were selected for walls and floors throughout.

Will Accommodate 600

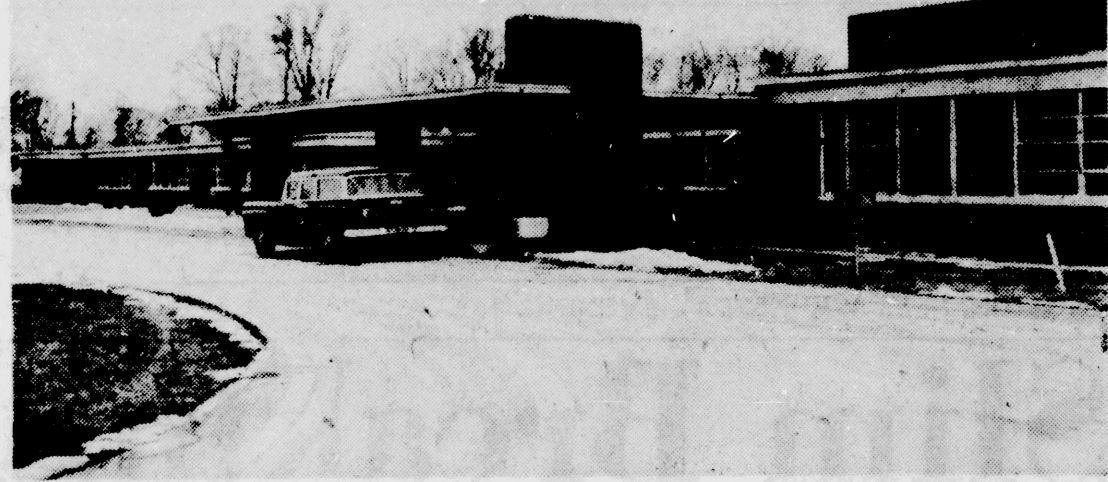

The school was designed to accommodate 600 elementary students. The cost of construction was $13.78 per square foot. The total project equipped was financed by a 30-year bond issue of $906,000.

The school opened in September, 1956, with a registration of 427 students. Since then registration has climbed to 608. At present there are four sections of half-day kindergarten, three sections each of grades 1, 2, 3 and 5, and two sections of grades 4, 6 and 7.

Special Services

Instruction is provided by 20 classroom teachers and one full-time music instructor. Part-time teachers of special services are provided by the Board of Cooperative Educational Services of Ulster County as follows:

Nurse teacher (four days per week); Mrs. Delores Rabbottini; physical education (three days per week); Michael Rizzo; art instruction (three days per week); Irwin Traugott; home economics (one day per week); Mrs. Carolyn VanGaasbeck; instrumental music (half a day per week); Don Slater; remedial reading (one day per week); Mrs. Margaret Ruff; elementary supervision (two days per week); George Fernandez; and psychologist (20 days per year); Mrs. Gloria McFarland.

Under the proposed plan the Miller's Lane area, Rosendale road and Linderman Avenue would be included in the George Washington School attendance district. Those residing on the Hurley road (209) and those on Lucas Avenue Extension beyond Spring Lake would attend the Hurley School.

Transportation is provided for all children living more than a mile from the school and for all kindergarten children living more than half a mile from the school.

The parents and teachers have formed an active Parent-Teacher Organization and are dedicated to providing a sound educational program for every child.

Adventists Plan Freedom Rally Set for Saturday

Memories of Independence Hall and a group of dedicated men who framed a priceless instrument of government there, will come alive at the Kingston Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 30 Pearl Street, Saturday, 11:30 a. m.

The occasion will be a freedom rally at which the fundamental tenets of the Constitution and Bill of Rights as they apply to religion will be discussed.

"We are going to re-study and re-think what our founding fathers wrote into our system of democracy in Philadelphia so many years ago," said the Rev. Eric R. Norman, pastor of the church, "so that we can apply true freedom in the Lord Jesus Christ in our modern day."

The Rev. Mr. Norman said the rally will mark his church's annual Religious Liberty Day, during which time the congregation studies current trends in this area and lays plans to promote more vigorously the principle of separation of church and state, which Adventists believe is essential to good government.

"Christians in all communions are called upon to keep faith in the principle of simple persuasion in a world of coercion," the Rev. Mr. Norman noted in commenting on the rally. "Suppressed and exploited peoples of earth can never lift up their heads in hope if the Christian church betrays its priceless freedom and descends to an unlovely stratum of coercive violence.

"Any infamous effort to force men to adhere to the legislative tenets of a majority faith, or to be required to conform to a Sabbath legislated by human enactment, can only result in the rebirth of ecclesiastical tyranny," the minister said.

The Rev. Mr. Norman said that an offering would be received at the rally to distribute "Liberty," a magazine of religious freedom, which advocates the separation of church and state.

A Sentimental Gesture

House Votes to Give Martin 'Extras' of Former Leader

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The sentimental gesture of the House toward Rep. Joseph Martin of Massachusetts—after he was booted out of his job as Republican leader—may cost the taxpayers up to $40,000 a year.

Leaders in Congress cost money. The salary of the 74-year-old Martin, like that of any other senator or representative, is $22,500 a year. Congress voted itself that pay in 1955. It has also voted itself various kinds of expense money.

$26,000 For Help
But as leader of the House Republicans, which he had been for 20 years, Martin got some extras: A Cadillac, a chauffeur, and about $26,000 more for office help than is allowed the ordinary congressman.

He lost those extras last week when his fellow Republicans—apparently because they thought he was slowing up—bounced him as their leader and replaced him with Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana. Halleck is 58.

The thought of Martin, with a reduced office staff and having to journey to work like an ordinary member of Congress, appeared too much for both Democrats and Republicans in the House. They voted Monday to give him back his extras.

Halleck, as the new Republican House leader, will, of course, also have a limousine, a chauffeur, and approximately $26,000 extra for additional office help.

Others So Honored
But Martin and Halleck aren't the only Capitol leaders who get a car and chauffeur for themselves. Others who do are:

Vice President Nixon, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, House Democratic Leader John W. McCormack, House Clerk Ralph R. Roberts, Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson, Republican Senate Leader Everett Dirksen, Senate Speaker Pro Tempore Carl Hayden, Senate Secretary Felton Johnston, and Senate Sergeant-at-Arms Joseph C. Duke.

Vice President Nixon and Speaker Rayburn get a salary of $35,000 each, plus $10,000 for expenses. While Nixon, as vice president, gets $101,000 a year for office expenses, Rayburn gets $53,000.

An ordinary House member gets 35,000 for office help, if there are fewer than 500,000 people in his district, and $40,000 if there are more than 500,000 in his district.

A House member also gets this extra expense money: $2,500 for office machinery like adding machines; free mailing privileges for ordinary letters; $400 for air mail and special delivery stamps; up to 3,000 minutes of long distance telephoning; 20,000 telegraph words free; $1,200 for stationery; plus $150 a month for the expense of having an office back in his home district.

No Senate Report
This writer could not obtain a corresponding breakdown for members of the Senate on office expenses. A request for the information was turned down flatly at the Senate Appropriations Committee, at the Senate Disbursing Office, and by Senate Secretary Johnston. I was told this was pretty much of a secret.

A protest that taxpayers' money was involved and they were entitled to the information got nowhere. Johnston is not a senator but a Senate employee.

But senators and representatives are allowed to deduct $3,000 a year from their $22,500 salary for personal living expenses because they have to maintain two homes: One here and one back in their own state.

Members of Congress can pay 7½ per cent of their salary into a pension fund. A member of either house who has served at least five years and reached age 62 can retire on a pension of $3,000 a year. One who has served 30 years can get a pension of $18,000.

Ask Adequate Pay
Whatever benefits members of Congress get were voted by themselves. There has long been the argument that, in order to get the highest-type citizens to run for Congress, the pay should not be so low as to discourage their running.

There are some additional expenses connected with Congress now. The Senate, which has one office building for its 98 members, next month will open a new one costing about $25,400,000, which includes furniture. It has a two-level underground garage for 136 cars and will provide every senator with at least five rooms in his office. Senators now have three to four.

The House, which has two office buildings for its 436 members, in 1962 will have three. The new one will cost over 64 million dollars.

Stassen Is Due In Albany on 15th

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Harold E. Stassen, sometimes described as a perennial presidential candidate, will visit Gov. Rockefeller's territory Thursday.

A spokesman for Rockefeller, often mentioned as a contender for the Republican presidential nomination next year, said Tuesday the two had no plans to meet.

Stassen, who tried unsuccessfully last year to win the GOP nomination for governor of Pennsylvania, is a former disarmament aide to President Eisenhower and one-time governor of Minnesota. He will address the World Affairs Council here. His topic will be "American Initiative for Peace in the Space-Atomic Age."

"These Days"

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY
A CONTROVERSY

It is only such meek and mild persons like myself who discover themselves in ferocious controversies. Some time ago, I wrote a piece on "Togetherness," a synthetic word which I dislike both as English and as an idea. My objection is largely philosophical and springs from the concept of man as an individual, created by God in His image, and not to be rocked from his principles by any compulsion, including social pressures. So I came across an article in "Horizon" by William Harlan Hale, entitled "In Revolt Against Togetherness," which I enjoyed immensely and quoted in one of these essays. Hale writes: "Some of America's most inescapable outdoor billboards located across the country from the strategic corner of New York's Fifth Avenue and 42nd Street to the 'Miracle Mile' of Hollywood's Wilshire Boulevard, recently have displayed a religious rather than a commercial message. A personable young father, his well-coiffed young wife, and their equally personable and well-coiffed three (sometimes four) young children are shown grouped in attitudes of devotion, and beside them runs the slogan, 'The Family That Prays Together Stays Together.'"

Hale's article is interesting, well-written, and I assume accurate as to his statement of facts. In due course, I received quite a number of letters, claiming that I did not do justice to the author of the sentence "The family that prays together stays together." I am told that the author is Father Patrick Peyton, founder of Family Theatre, Family Rosary Crusade and the Crusade for Family Prayer.

If Father Peyton's friends feel that I was disrespectful of a worthy priest's inventiveness, they do me an injustice, for no desire to denigrate any man of his authorship of a sentence, although I fear that the human race is so old that most sentences have been repeated often in many languages. One of the major problems of any writer is to keep from sounding like a book of quotations. The more literature the author, the fuller his head is of other men's ideas and one of the oldest ideas is Togetherness. The reduction of man to the facelessness of being part of a crowd, living by compulsions of which he is neither the author nor the conscious victim, Sparta, in what we call ancient Greece, is an example. My own concept of life is closer to that of Thomas Aquinas whose ideas did much to form our current civilization.

However, a slogan has its purpose and the purpose of the one that Father Peyton authored is to get people to pray, which is good for the soul of man, to which I can testify particularly after my recent bout with death. Even without this slogan, without knowledge of it, without knowledge of Family Theatre, I prayed my gifts, for I do not believe in a quid pro quo relationship with God, but in adoration of Him and I always pray in Hebrew, perhaps because of a childhood assumption that that is the language of Heaven.

Nevertheless, I must say that while in our family there has always been prayer, of one kind or another, we did not stay together and drove us apart into separate paths and separate lives.

The trouble with a slogan whether manufactured by hucksters on Madison Avenue or in the Kremlin or anywhere is that it is usually so generalized as to be inaccurate if not untrue. In an era when millions of our population are war and returning, settle when they can, the binding ties must be very deep indeed to hold a family together emotionally as it cannot be held together physically. Even without war, our industrial system separates families, our college system separates children from the parents. I am told that I am too liberal about the word, "together." Well, if together is the wrong word, why must we use a right one? For what obviously the slogan means to say is that prayer is a sound institution that it elevates the human being from a clod of protoplasm to a life outside one's self, a life close to God. Why not say that?

The unity of a family is made in childhood. It is a fulfillment of man's love and respect, and a union not of "Togetherness" but that each soul must account for itself.

★ Dr. Jordan Says: ★

Periodic Physical Is Wise,
But Is No Insurance Policy

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A middle-aged businessman who wants to keep himself in the best possible health for the sake of his family and his business associates, has asked me how often he should visit his doctor and have a routine physical examination.

The question is a good one but the answer is difficult.

A routine physical examination does not insure good health, nor even always prove that an obscure disorder is not present.

Once, years ago, after making an exceedingly careful examination and finding the patient in apparently excellent health, I sent the man home. Within a few hours he came down with a violent attack of flu.

Nevertheless, this does not mean that the periodic physical checkup is not worthwhile. How often it should take place depends on the age and physical condition of the patient, his occupation, and the judgment of his physician.

What tests should be made at the time also has to be left to the physician, since it is impossible to make every conceivable test which is in the books. From the patient's point of view, therefore, he or she must take the advice of the physician consulted with regard to how often routine checkups should be made and what tests should be made.

A person who visits the doctor regularly should always report any symptoms or suspicious signs which have developed since the last appointment.

Gain or loss in weight is particularly important. The doctor's examination often reveals such things as a chronic infection of the nose, bronchitis, the presence of hemorrhoids, a lump in the breast, swelling of the ankles and similar changes which may be warning signs.

Examination of the blood pressure should be included in every routine examination, and if the patient has simple laboratory tests on the blood and urine are generally made also.

Up to this point, the routine physical examination is fairly simple. However, there are so many special tests possible that it would be too time consuming—and too expensive—to apply all of them to every person once or twice a year.

How often, for example, should it be necessary to take a basal metabolic test, an X-ray of the stomach, an electrocardiogram, or examination of the chemistry of the blood?

Such tests as these cannot be included in every routine examination unless there is some particular reason. What is sometimes done is to use some tests at each examination and gradually get through the more important.

The use of reasonable methods of physical examination and such tests as seem to be indicated reveal many disease conditions in their early stages. This, of course, is of enormous help in treatment, as almost anything is easier to cure at the beginning than when it has become advanced.

The fact that Martin also was ousted from the chairmanship of the House Republican policy committee is the best indication of a strong desire for a complete change in leadership. How the Republicans will respond to this new leadership remains to be seen, but no sweeping shift of emphasis seems likely.

The Patient's Feeling Much Better

Washington News

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON, (NEA)—Everett McKinley Dirksen of Pekin, Ill., just elected Republican minority leader in the U. S. Senate, considers himself a middle-of-the-roader, though he's commonly thought of a reactionary.

Another way he says it is that he's an irregular regular. This is defined as being more conservative than the late Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio on housing, about even with Taft on labor legislation, considerable to the left of Taft on foreign aid and foreign policy.

He's a conservative on farm policy, too, meaning that he's against subsidies and controls. He says this reflects majority sentiment of Illinois farmers.

Surveys of his voting record shows that in the last Congress, Senator Dirksen supported President Eisenhower's program 85 to 90 percent of the time. He voted to override Ike's area development veto. He supported the McCarthy and the Bricker amendment.

INTERNATIONALISM and foreign aid have never been popular in the Midwest farm belt, though foreign-born groups in Chicago support aid to their own homelands.

In 1941 Dirksen spoke on the floor of the House in favor of President Roosevelt's war preparedness program, Chicago Tribune read Dirksen out of the GOP. Pearl Harbor came in three months.

In 1944 a score of more of his congressional colleagues supported Rep. Dirksen's GOP presidential nomination. But he did not have the support of the Illinois delegation.

After the war, Dirksen supported the Marshall Plan's first five-year program. Twice more the Tribune read him out. But when he decided to run for the Senate in 1950 the late Col. Robert McCormick, Tribune editor and dean of the Illinois GOP, gave Dirksen his blessing.

Senator Dirksen has been accused of being a Tribune mouthpiece in Congress. But his staff says the last kind word the Tribune had for the Illinois senator was in 1956.

DIRKSEN WAS FOR TAFT for president in 1948 and 1952. It was at the Chicago GOP convention in 1952 that Dirksen delivered his famous speech against Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, accusing him of wanting to lead the party to defeat again—by supporting Eisenhower.

Publicly, Senator Dirksen said he had no regrets for that speech. Privately Dirksen is known to have called up Dewey to explain that he hadn't meant to say what he did. But he lost his notes and spoke extemporaneously.

Gov. Dewey is reported to have said that he understood. Somebody had found the lost Dirksen notes and turned them over to Dewey. The governor read some of the notes back to Dirksen. They paralleled the speech.

After Eisenhower's nomination, Senator Taft went to ask Ike to take Dirksen as his vice-presidential partner. Gov. Dewey, in the smoke-filled room of Eisenhower's headquarters, blocked Dirksen and picked Dick Nixon for v.p.

Subsequently it was all patched up. President Eisenhower spoke to a group of Republican women in Chicago in 1953 and referred to Dirksen as "a very great associate of mine . . . absolute in his devotion, without question."

Congress Urged to Battle Against Evils of Inflation

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — They have argued about such technical things as Senate rules and are preparing to talk about spending more money to send a man to the moon, but there are no signs that Congress is ready yet to come to grips with the down-to-earth problem which affects the well being of millions of Americans—inflation.

Until the American people are thoroughly aroused to the crisis that faces them in the present Congress, the emphasis will still be on secondary matters. President Eisenhower puts the case in unequivocal words as follows: "We must avoid any contribution to inflationary processes, which could disrupt sound growth in our economy."

"Prices have displayed a welcome stability in recent months and, if we are wise and resolute, we will not tolerate inflation in the years to come. But history makes clear the risks inherent in any failure to deal firmly with the basic causes of inflation. Two of the most important of these causes are the wage-price spiral and continued deficit financing."

"Inflation would reduce job opportunities, price us out of world markets, shrink the value of savings and penalize the thrift so essential to finance a growing economy."

"Not a Robin Hood" "Inflation is not a Robin Hood, taking from the rich to give to the poor. Rather, it deals most cruelly with those who can least protect themselves. It strikes hardest those millions of our citizens whose incomes do not quickly rise with the cost of living. When prices soar, the pensioner and the widow see their security undermined; the man of thrift sees his savings melt away; the white collar worker, the minister and the teacher see their standards of living dragged down."

"Inflation can be prevented. But this demands statesmanship on the part of business and labor leaders and of government at all levels. We must encourage the self-discipline, the restraint necessary to curb the wage-price spiral and except only in critical emergencies we must meet current costs from current revenue."

But will "self-discipline" materialize? What is really needed is courage in Congress. And there will not be action by Congress until there is a people's "lobby" bigger than the labor-union lobby which, by its millions of dollars of contributions, buys the election of enough members of Congress to block remedial legislation.

Sees Labor Law Needed The headlines have told about the corruption inside some big labor unions. Congress has not passed the necessary legislation to deal with the evil. Instead, many labor-union leaders who are themselves honest are afraid the laws will be used in some way to hurt them. The cry is that there isn't any need to pass laws because there are only a few guilty ones. But there would be no criminal laws today if the doctrine were accepted that because the offenders are a minority no preventive steps should be taken by the people against those offenders.

What is amazing is that, after the sensational disclosures last year, the labor unions won more elections for their candidates in Congress than ever before. The President pointed to these disclosures in his "State of the Union" message: "Last January I made comprehensive recommendations to the Congress for legislation in the labor-management field. To my disappointment, Congress failed to act. The McClellan committee disclosures of corruption, racketeering and abuse of trust and power in labor-management affairs have aroused America and amazed other peoples. Its disclosures emphasize the need for improved local law enforcement and the enactment of effective Federal legislation to protect the public interest and to insure the rights and economic freedoms of millions of American workers. Halfhearted measures will not do. I shall recommend prompt enactment of legislation designed:

To safeguard workers' funds in union treasuries against misuse of any kind whatsoever. "To protect the rights and freedoms of individual union members, including the basic right to free and secret elections of officers. "To advance true and responsible collective bargaining. "To protect the public and innocent third parties from unfair and coercive practices such as boycotting and blacklisting."

"The Biggest Virus" But the President does not propose any cure for the biggest single virus — labor extortion at the bargaining table — that has really led to the strike fever in America. The threat of a steel strike this summer already costing the country many billions in a frustration of planning for plant and equipment. An economic war that is permitted to damage the public by billions of dollars a year and that keeps sending prices upward to rob the people of their savings. The power of purchasing power of the dollar — needs more drastic action than the President has proposed. But evidently the American people are not yet aroused — so Mr. Eisenhower is fighting an uphill battle alone against the most powerful lobby ever to exert pressure on our national legislators. AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

The flurry over an attempt to drag the New York Police force, which has at theoretical full-strength, about 19,000 men below the rank of sergeant, was a publicity coup by a city employee outside the force who acquired a charter from the Teamsters Union for Local 237. He had help from a "labor columnist" who peddles a package-goods feature purporting to tell "inside" stories of idealism and dirty work with noble indifference to personal interest or profit.

Because Jimmy Hoffa holds temporarily the titular presidency of the Teamsters' entire union, success in this coup would have delivered the civil defense of the metropolis into the hands of a dirty rodent whose name was known to only a few Congressmen, professional investigators, associate hoodlums and injured victims until about two years ago. This is not the occasion to examine Hoffa's career provided it be understood that the deal would have given him the power to disarm the city and inflict on New York the bloody reality, but to the nth power, of the fake which was conjured up in Little Rock when the 101st Airborne moved in.

Such an emergency in New York would be tumult reminiscent of the insurrections in Boston and Liverpool where the cops walked out just after the first war.

The conflict-of-interest which is deplored in public office has now become so familiar in journalism as to be accepted without question. In my fortunate days a sport-writer who accepted a ham or a hat from Jack Dempsey was a grafter. In the new dispensation the title of "columnist" implies a right to engage in a traffic called "public" and "fair" relations. "Fees" are reasonably understood to be far beyond the professional stipends of some journalists concerned. This would have been corruption in a time of narrower understanding, but nowadays the licensee, when he goes on vacation, he goes to the beach, available his space and the facilities and good name of papers buying his stuff for "guest" columnists with fish to fry. On other days, writing under his own name, a presiding custodian of the pitch may communicate ideas to the public for motives not free of guile.

I hit this topic this light flick as an introductory item. I will enlarge upon it later and suggest how it was that the press fell into the error of viewing Hoffa's gesture with too great alarm. Actually, Hoffa never had any serious intention to try anything so brash and he settled away at the first challenge from the mayor, Mr. Wagner, and the police commissioner, Mr. Kennedy.

However, good flows out of evil. The mayor, the son of the senator who lent his name to the Wagner Act, has been goaded to repudiate by implication his own father's greatest work and to commit Congress to official acts in defiance of the navy principles which the Communist cabal exultantly inflicted on business and workers when Senator Wagner was sitting in Washington.

In this jam, Mayor Wagner has rejected collective bargaining for a non-military force of 10,000 of the best cops in the United States and has threatened punishment on Henry Feinstein, a typical civil service non-entity who became hypothetical president of the hypothetical union of the cops by Hoffa's favor. To wreak harm on this employee for attempting to extend the boons of "organization" to the unorganized is infamous practice according to the elder Wagner's law, but at this writing, Mr. Feinstein suffers the grievous hurt of the mayor's displeasure and might be put to much harder work than he has his present pay of $8,500 a year.

Commissioner Kennedy, a cop for 20 years himself, and a lawyer by his own diligence, has no juvenile illusions of the work or the personality of the New York policeman. It is no special compliment in his view to say that these policemen are honest, brave in sudden crises and highly intelligent. These are the minimum standards which they promised to maintain.

However, Kennedy insists that they are still below parity with the FBI, which is the goal of his program of education for New York policemen. He likes the FBI. The police pay begins at $4,500 a year, rising to $5,881 for patrolmen in three years, plus familiar "fringe" benefits. Detectives, who retain the basic rank of patrolmen, receive from $6,119 to $7,265. Kennedy believes they all deserve more, but regards this as one of the less urgent problems because obviously they are not poor on such pay, an increase of about 50 per cent Jan. 1, 1948.

The Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, the agitating force in the Hoffa campaign, never was acknowledged as a "bargaining agent" and commissioners have had trouble with it for years as a political nuisance. However, Kennedy will not let any person or society "negotiate" matters of discipline and he has rejected absolutely the old contention that when a cop is transferred he has a right to an explanation satisfactory to his wife.

Grant any union that right and no commissioner would have authority to shift men according to the routine needs of the problem of policing a city bigger and more easily excited than many individual nations.

The threat of the Hoffa union has blown away now. But the cops pay $150 a month to the PBA and that means, roughly, $30,000 a month available for lobbying.

Kennedy hasn't got a dollar for a counter-lobby and he will turn in his papers and his shield and walk out with a good pension if the time comes when he has to wheedle with any board of guardhouse lawyers to justify 50 or more routine transfers each day.

Registration Is Under Study of N. Y. Motorboats

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—A joint legislative committee today studied a method of avoiding double registration of motorboats in the metropolitan New York area.

Assemblyman Charles A. Cusick (R-Cayuga County) said state and federal motorboat license systems might lead to duplicate registration.

Under the state law, all motorboats operating around Long Island and the lower Hudson—except those registered with the Coast Guard—must register with the State Public Works Department.

Under a new federal system, the state must establish a new registration system in 1960 and award numbers allotted by the Coast Guard.

Cusick, chairman of the committee on motor boats, said the group was studying a plan under which metropolitan area boat owners who registered with the state this year could delay re-registration until 1962.

Cusick said about 150,000 metropolitan area boats were subject to state registration this year. These boats are less than 16 feet long. Another 150,000 will get new numbers when the federal system goes into effect next year.

Cusick said legislation for a boat registration system that meets federal standards would be introduced later this month.

If this is approved, Cusick said, New York motorboat owners will be subject only to state registration.

Why We Say—

The saying, "marriage is a gamble" is far from new. Probably the origin of the idea is in the word wed itself which is derived from wedding which means wager. Oddly enough, wed was first used pertaining to horse races and only later was shifted to the marriage gamble.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The urge to merge has continued strong enough during the recession and the recovery. Rumors of still more corporate mergers are prime factors in motivating traders in the stock market.

Sometimes the government has frowned upon such plans. A federal judge has halted for the present at least the nuptials desired by Bethlehem Steel and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

Sometimes Ardor Cools

Sometimes the ardor of one or more companies who have been going together has cooled. The New York Central has stopped its merger talks with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

But the Central's president says his railway still has its eye out for any other heiress who might be ready to fall into its lap. A striking number of mergers have taken place in recent months. The Federal Trade Commission says it noted more than 900 industrial mergers or acquisitions of other types in 1958.

Few Mergers Get U. S. Frown

Only a few mergers get the frown of the federal government. The government acts when, as in the steel merger proposal, it believes there will be a harmful lessening of competition within the industry.

This decade has seen about 2,000 corporate unions so far. During the recession there was some merging of companies seeking to survive. Some had run up enough of a loss to make them attractive to more prosperous companies who could use these losses to offset their own profits in figuring income taxes.

Out to Boost Capacity

Both the recession and the recovery have increased the competition factor in many industries. Some mergers have grown out of a desire to get the excellent management or skilled engineers of another company.

A leading cause for mergers is to increase total capacity, in the belief that production can be made more efficient and competitive that way.

Pupils Get Day Off, Buses Are Grounded by PSC

ADDISON, N. Y. (AP)—Students at the Addison School had an unexpected holiday today. The Public Service Commission "grounded" all the school's buses as a safety measure.

Twelve of Addison's 20 buses flunked a snap test by PSC inspectors Tuesday. The other eight got their exams today.

Supervising Principal Ernest Bodenstab said the inspectors told him "the problem here in Addison seems to be one of inadequate maintenance, personnel and facilities," Bodenstab commented "I agree."

Eight buses were found to have major repair problems. The other four could be repaired quite easily, he said.

Until this can be done, he said, school must be suspended for the 1,400 elementary and high school pupils, 70 per cent of whom are transported daily to school on the buses.

Addison is in Steuben County.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Men," says Julie Newmar, "have much greater imaginations than we have beauty—bless their hearts." A man would have to have quite an imagination indeed to outdo the beauty of Miss Newmar, an actress of cutaneous pulchritude who currently is playing on Broadway in "The Marriage-Go-Round."

Debuts Next Sunday

Next Sunday she makes her television debut on "Omnibus" in a satiric comedy on Hollywood life written by S. J. Perelman and entitled "Malice in Wonderland." "I play an actress, an extra-type girl who's a little larger than life and overwhelms her blind date, a psychiatrist played by Keenan Wynn," said Miss Newmar. "In a way it's the part of a Hollywood sex-goddess."

Why is it, a fellow asked her, that the movies have developed quite a few "sex goddess" types and television has not developed even one?

"Sex has a lot to do with lights," said Miss Newmar. Black is not a color that expresses sex. On television you're simply black and white—most of the time. For instance I'm wearing black today. In of sexiness on anyone I'd have worn beige."

Okay in Black, Too

She was doing mighty well in black, the man said.

"Not that I'm aware of," she replied. "Maybe when color sets are in more general use television finally will develop a sex-goddess."

For the Sunday "Omnibus," Perelman fashioned three of his short stories into a comic satire. The production will be directed by James Lee.

"The Twentieth Century" begins a two-part series on juvenile delinquency Sunday that traces the story of a typical delinquent and new rehabilitation effort being undertaken in New Jersey. Stephen Fleischman, who wrote, directed and produced the filmed program, had a choice of doing a study of the suburbs or juvenile delinquency. He chose the subject of delinquency, he says, because "The problem is just too big to ignore and cries for treatment."

Big Bid Needs Strong Play

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

North probably bid a trifle too strongly but lots of North players do. So do some Easts, Wests and Souths.

It will be noted that the slam would be a laydown if declarer happened to hold three spades and two diamonds since a spade ruff would be the twelfth trick. It will also be noted that a trump lead would have beaten the hand but West opened the four of diamonds.

George Cardenas of New York played low from dummy. Maybe West was leading from a combination that included the ten spot in which case the lead would have given him the hand but no such pleasant thing happened. Nevertheless, George did bring home the bacon. He won the trick, led a club to dummy's ace, ruffed a club, led a low heart and promptly finessed dummy's eight spot.

If this finesse had lost George would be down two but it worked. Now George ruffed another club, got back to dummy with the king of hearts and ruffed a fourth club.

This established dummy's last club as a trick. George drew the last trump and still had the king of spades as an entry to dummy for that good club.

Whittaker Gets 2 to 4 Year Term On Larceny Count

John D. Whittaker, 56, a one time police commissioner of Catskill and now on leave as a village trustee, was sentenced today by Greene County Judge Roy C. Moon to a term of from 2 to 4 years at Clinton State Prison under a grand larceny conviction.

Whittaker, at one time with the Kingston office of the New York City Law Department, Division of Water Supply, was convicted last December 4 of retaining a $9,750 check issued to Mrs. Fama Vaughn of Tannersville in a state land-taking. He had been held in Greene County jail since December 14 when a $2,500 bail bond was revoked and he was committed to jail.

Following conviction Francis Martocci was retained as counsel and made an application to Judge Moon for a sanity examination of Whittaker. That examination was held by a psychiatric team from Hudson River State Hospital and delivered Judge Moon Monday. After studying the report, which was negative, Judge Moon today imposed sentence.

Whittaker is also under indictment in Ulster County on a charge of grand larceny and forgery. It is alleged he retained over $11,000 from a Town of Saugerties client paid to her in settlement of a fire loss.

Fireman Perishes In Blaze Caused By Quarreling

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — A fireman perished and an apartment building was damaged early today in a fire which officials said apparently resulted from an argument between the building's handyman and a woman custodian.

Detectives arrested Ernest Goler, 41, and Miss Ann Owens, 49. Officers said Goler and Miss Owens—Negroes who lived in the basement of the building—accused each other of starting the blaze. Both were charged with suspicion of felony.

Detectives said stories given by Goler and Miss Owens indicated they quarreled while drinking in their basement quarters.

Goler was quoted as saying Miss Owens threw lighted matches into a storage bin. Miss Owens told detectives Goler had been tossing matches around the basement.

Attempt Is Futile

Both said they attempted to fight the blaze before flames drove them out.

The fire spread swiftly through the three-story brick structure near the University of Pittsburgh campus in the Oakland section about three miles from downtown.

Occupants of the 12 apartments fled, many in nightclothing, into near-freezing temperatures.

Fire Chief Stephen Adley estimated damage at $40,000.

The dead fireman, Bartley O'Malley, 34, was trapped on the second floor and overcome by smoke. Three other firemen were treated for smoke poisoning and injuries. Four more were injured slightly in the collision of their truck and an auto en route to the fire.

Democrats Score GOP Budget Talk

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats assailed the administration budget-balancing pledges and tax cutting talk today as part of a fiscal juggling act they said is aimed at fooling the people.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, assistant Senate Democratic leader, challenged statements of Republican congressional leaders that the new budget will show a 100-million-dollar surplus and that tax cuts may be possible in two or three years.

Mansfield and other Democrats censured President Eisenhower plans to balance a 77-billion-dollar budget by estimating revenues at a far higher level than they are likely to reach.

Termed 'Pipe Dream'

Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) said in a separate interview Congress will take a good look at what he said promises to be a "pipe dream" budget, to be submitted by Eisenhower next Monday.

Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said he is certain Congress is going to vote all of the funds it believes are needed for defense whether it balances the budget or not.

However, Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California, the assistant Republican leader, said the Democrats were jumping to conclusions without having the facts.

"Anybody who denounces the President's budget in advance of studying it in detail simply convicts himself of political demagoguery," Kuchel said. "If the budget isn't balanced it will be because the Democratic Congress doesn't vote to keep it in balance."

Promise to Ease Import Prices on Cotton Apparel

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Commerce Department has promised U. S. clothing makers, among them a Gloversville, N. Y., man, that it will seek to ease the competitive effects of increased imports of low-priced cotton apparel from Hong Kong.

Henry Kearns, assistant secretary for international affairs, met Monday with industry representatives and announced he will visit Hong Kong soon.

Among the industry representatives was Harry A. Moss Jr., of the American Knit Glove Assn., Gloversville, N. Y.

The department said Tuesday that while in Hong Kong, Kearns will explore with government officials and industry leaders the possibility of finding some solution to the problems created for American industry by the sharply increasing shipments of cotton apparel from the colony.

Kearns is going to the Far East primarily for a meeting in Bangkok, Thailand, of the economic commission for Asia and the Far East.

Kearns also discussed with industry representatives the status of discussions on the Japanese voluntary cotton products export programs.

The garment men asked for protection against increases in shipments of low-priced items.

Woman Must Give Shooting Data Before N. J. Jury

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—A young mother who told a newspaper that her testimony implicating three men in a fatal shooting was false will have a chance to tell her story again—this time before a grand jury.

Hudson County Prosecutor Lawrence A. Whipple ordered the arrest of Mrs. Charlotte Weiboldt Hansen Tuesday. He said the 39-year-old blonde had violated her $1,000 bail by leaving Hudson County.

Mrs. Hansen is now living in Farmingdale, N. Y., with her father, Rudolph Weiboldt, a retired Jersey City policeman, Whipple said.

He said the woman will be taken before a grand jury and will be asked to tell her story again. If she changes it from the original testimony she gave, the prosecutor said, she will be charged with perjury.

Is Key Witness

Mrs. Hansen is a key witness in the murder of Louis Critelli. Critelli was fatally shot on Oct. 4, 1957 as he returned from a bank to his son's tavern here.

Police said Mrs. Hansen's statement helped lead to the indictment of Joseph Diana, 30, and Louis DeCola and Lawrence Hurley, both 25, who are awaiting trial on murder charges. Police quoted her as saying she had accompanied the men to the scene of the shooting.

But on Monday, the New York Daily News reported that the woman had recanted the statements she made to police in a tape recorder interview with news reporters.

That's Gratitude

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—Richard J. Fairchild, 22, of Corry, told police he was driving to Warren Tuesday when he encountered two women motorists with a flat tire.

Fairchild said he stopped and helped change the tire. After he was finished, he said one of the women said:

"Here's your reward," and shot him with a rifle she took from her car.

Fairchild is in fair condition in Warren General Hospital with a wound of the left shoulder as police investigate his story.

Says Goldwater Choice Would be Anti Labor

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky.) said today Republicans will be laying themselves open to charges they are anti-labor if they name Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) as their campaign chairman.

Cooper, who was the unsuccessful candidate of Senate Republicans for floor leader, said he has no objection to a proposal that GOP members running in 1960 pick the campaign director.

The Kentucky senator made it clear, however, that he regards Goldwater as the likely choice of the 1960 class if this proposal is approved. The Conference of all GOP Senators was called into session today to consider the matter.

Some Vehicles Must Have State Tabs by Thursday

ALBANY—Commercial, suburban and farm vehicles, as well as trailers, must display 1959 registration tabs on rear 1958 registration plates after midnight Thursday, the State Bureau of Motor Vehicles reminded motorists today. The front 1958 plates also must remain affixed to the vehicles, the bureau pointed out.

The 1959 tabs may be attached to all vehicles now although passenger cars do not have to display the tab until midnight, Monday, Feb. 2. The 1958 passenger car registrations together with those for motorcycles, do not expire until midnight February 2. Motorcycle owners get new 1959 plates, not a tab.

The bureau urges all owners to make their application for the '59 tabs early to avoid a last-minute rush which may cause delays. There is still time to complete the transaction by mail, the bureau said.

Offices of the bureau including the Kingston office at Main and Fair Streets will remain open until noon on Saturdays for the rest of the month for the issuance of 1959 registrations, as will bureau offices of the county clerks in the other counties of the state.

Man Is Booked

represented by Attorney Francis X. Tucker and Charles J. Saccamano appeared for Mertine.

Seven drivers were fined $100 last night on traffic counts, and one of them, Philip Rion, of 26 Cooper Street, Stone Ridge, was fined $50 on a speeding charge as a second offender.

Other Court Cases

James Rundle, 43, of 67 O'Neil Street, who was arrested Dec. 16 on a third degree assault charge on complaint of Gary Arthur Vernooy, 18, of Vincent Street, Town of Ulster, has countered with a reckless driving charge against Vernooy, it was revealed today.

Vernooy's case was put over to Thursday and Rundle's to Jan. 21. Attorney Joseph Avis appears for Rundle and Vernooy is to get counsel.

Fined $15 each on charges of speeding were Herbert P. LeFevre, Old Kingston Road, New Paltz and Wayne G. Burbans, 18, of 156 Pearl Street.

Fined $5 each were Salvatore Ferraro 40, of Glasco, charged with passing a red light; Victor Albright, 18, of 116 Wilbur Avenue, charged with making unnecessary noise (faulty muffler) and Aaron Bahl, Town of Ulster, charged with passing a stop-sign. The latter fine was imposed after trial.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market declined moderately today in fairly active trading.

An assortment of issues bucked the trend, posting fair gains. For key stocks generally the losses went from fractions to about a point.

CIT Financial dropped sharply on news the Ford Motor Co. plans to enter the new-car financing field. Commercial Credit was another big loser.

Steels, rubbers, oils and tobaccos were mostly lower. Motors, copper and selected issues made gains.

By early afternoon the worst of the losses had been cut.

North American Aviation was another active loser, dropping 2 points or so. On a single 1,500-share trade, Dayton Power & Light rose 3 to 61. Goodrich dropped about 2. Lorillard, American Telephone and Standard Oil of California were off around a point each. American Motors and Radio Corp. gained about a point apiece. Haveg picked up more than 2. Du Pont showed gains ranging between 1 and 2 points.

Chamber Elects

Other officers elected were as follows: Vice-Presidents Clyde Wonderly Jr., Richard J. Whalen and Joseph E. O'Connor. H. Van Wyck Darrow was elected as treasurer.

The chairman of the State Legislative Affairs Committee, John Ponsen, reported that his committee has carefully considered the proposed state withholding tax and unanimously recommended opposition thereto. The report was discussed at length and the board of directors, with 18 of the 20 directors present, voted 17 to 1 to approve the committee recommendation.

Some of the reasons outlined by the principal of the state withholding tax are as follows: (1) Small businessmen are already overburdened with rules, regulations and extra records, (2) A withholding tax becomes a partial form of hidden taxation, easily increased and (3) The increased revenue may be largely off-set by increased expense of administration with more people on the public payroll.

Another portion of the State Legislative Affairs Committee report, urging a sincere tax consciousness on the part of all citizens, was approved. It was suggested that all legislation be reviewed and considered from the standpoint of the effect on taxpayers.

The membership application of Singer's Department Store at 60 Broadway was received and approved. Henry Singer is the voting representative.

The five Chamber of Commerce officers serve as an executive committee to transact business between the regular monthly meetings of the board of directors. The next regular meeting takes place Feb. 10.

First Legislature

was adopted in Kingston and signed on April 2, 1777.

In June, Gen. George Clinton was elected as the first governor, but it was not until July 30, 1777, that he could be inaugurated. The first Senate met on Sept. 10, 1777, and the first term of the Supreme Court was held in Kingston on Sept. 9, 1777.

On Sept. 16, 1777, British naval vessels landed and destroyed the entire village of Kingston because of the leading part its citizens took in the Revolution.

The Senate House, where the first Senate met, is now a historic shrine. It was built as a private residence in 1676, but is now maintained as a museum by the state. It holds the distinction of being the oldest public building in the United States.

Must Answer Soviet Bid

Apart from the discussions with Mikoyan, the United States and other Western nations face the necessity of replying soon to the Soviet proposal for a peace conference on Germany to meet in March.

This proposal and a Soviet suggested treaty draft are sure to be rejected by the Allies. However, Dulles obviously wants to come up with some counter proposal that will bring East and West closer to a conference.

U.S. May . . .

to consultation with the European Allies, could be some innovations in United States and Western policy, or a new decision to stand firm on present policies.

Progress always involves risks. You can't steal second base and keep one foot on first.

In some parts of drouth-ridden Connecticut, homeowners are having water pumped into their wells. For $10 a thousand gallons, dry wells are being filled. M. E. Martin, Baltic, RD. 1, Conn.

Jim—Gosh! You're not looking well, Bill. Is something wrong? Bill—There certainly is. I've had to give up drinking, smoking, and playing horses. Jim—Gee, it must be serious. But at least it's all to your credit. Bill—Humph! That's just where you're wrong. It's all due to my lack of credit.

Porter—Oh, very well, then, turn right and be left. You have really grown wise when you realize the matter you are anxious about today won't seem important tomorrow.

First major battle in which George Washington was engaged was that of Fort Mifflin, Pa. Fought in July of 1776, this was the opening engagement of the French and Indian War.

He succeeds George H. Proper of Albany.

New Figure Is Involved in Probe Of Buffalo Paving

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—A new figure has moved to center stage in a probe of alleged payoffs to city officials for street paving contracts.

He is George Shepherd, secretary of Brunner Asphalt & Construction Inc.

Attention turned to Shepherd Tuesday when U. S. Atty. John O. Henderson asked for a federal court order directing Shepherd to answer a series of grand jury questions.

Henderson said Shepherd repeatedly invoked the Fifth Amendment during a grand jury appearance last Wednesday.

A transcript of proceedings that day showed that Shepherd was asked—and refused to answer—whether he had used eight checks totaling $41,900 "to procure or solicit street-paving contracts from the City of Buffalo."

Henderson, in making his request of the court, noted that the grand jury had granted Shepherd immunity from any federal prosecution that might possibly follow if he answered.

Judge Burke reserved decision. The paving contract investigation by federal, state and local agencies began last September when Henderson revealed that another contractor, Raymond Brayer, had refused to tell the Internal Revenue Service details of $10,000 in checks issued by his company.

Brayer later was directed to answer questions of an Erie County Grand Jury which had granted him immunity. He still declined to answer. State Supreme Court Justice John S. Marsh then cited him for contempt and Brayer served 30 days in county jail.

He has since challenged the legality of the county grand jury, an action still pending before the Appellate Division, Fourth Department.

Collective Bargaining Gains at Over 9 Cents

Wage increases through collective bargaining averaged 9.4 cents an hour in 1958 for the 1,155 settlements reported to the New York State Department of Labor, according to preliminary figures released by Industrial Commissioner Martin P. Catherwood today. Over 875,000 workers were involved in the settlements.

The preliminary report indicated that about 90 per cent of the 1958 settlements provided for wage increases—compared to 97 per cent for 1957.

According to final figures, 1957 raises averaged 11 cents in 1,314 settlements involving 955,000 workers.

About two-thirds of the settlements reported changes in fringe benefits—approximately the same as for 1957.

Man Into 'Bullet' Into Space —

The needle-nosed X-15 with Capt. Robert White, USAF, who is assigned to make the historic flight.

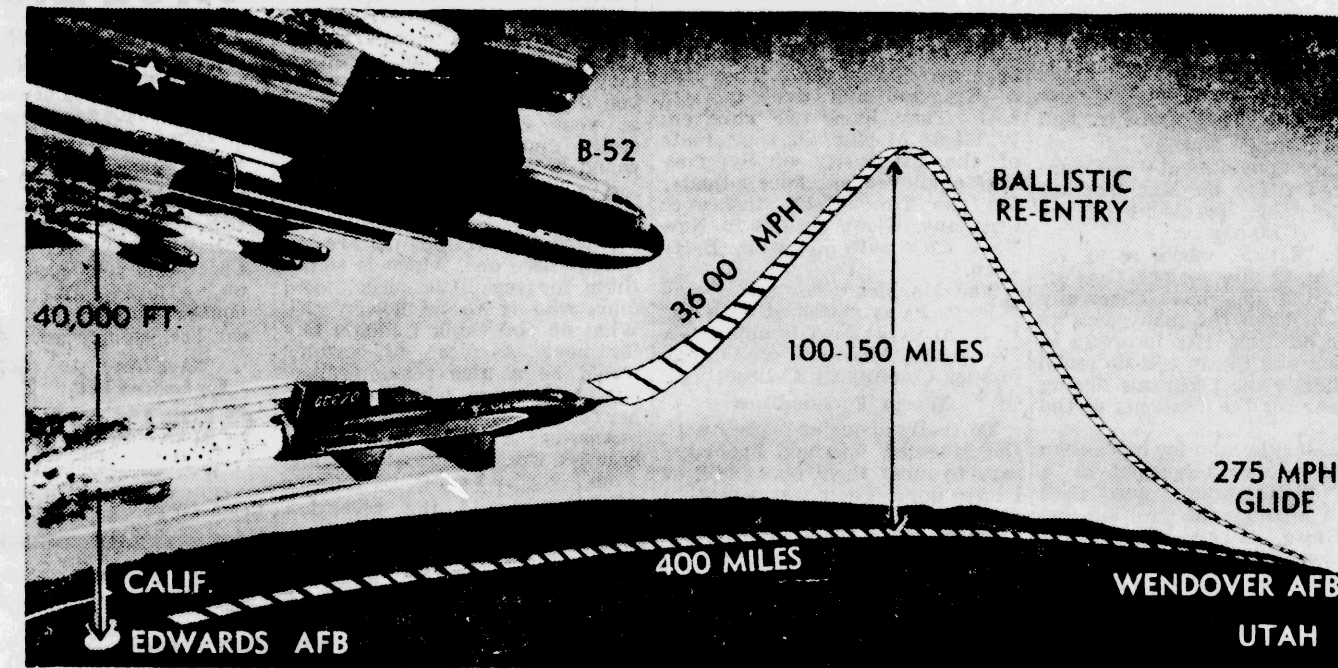

Diagram shows the planned flight of the North American X-15 rocket research ship in the world's first effort to put a man on the edge of outer space and bring him back safely. The 50-foot, stainless steel, man-carrying "bullet" will be dropped from the belly of a modified B-52 bomber at a height of some 40,000 feet above Edwards AFB, Calif. Rocket engines, taking over with a 60,000-pound thrust, will develop a speed of 3,600 h.p.h. During 90 seconds of powered flight, the X-15 will zoom to a height of 100-150 miles above the earth. At this apex of flight, the pilot, aided by a highly advanced Sperry inertial guidance system, will maneuver the plane into the correct re-entry position. From there, it will make a gliding descent into the earth's atmosphere, landing at Wendover AFB, Utah, 400 miles from the start.

Plan Headquarters In Shopping Area For State Pageant

A temporary headquarters for the Miss New York State Pageant to be held in Kingston this year will be established in the uptown shopping district, according to plans announced at a meeting of the associate directors at the home of Guy A. Visk, pageant director.

Visk said, "With a headquarters in this location, we will be in a better position to provide the residents of the community with pertinent and up-to-date information about the pageant. The state pageant is new to our community, and many of us do not fully realize its scope. When a suitable location can be found, window displays will be exhibited showing the various phases of the Miss America Pageant."

Actual Date Pending

The state pageant under the sponsorship of Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce was originally scheduled for May 2, however setting of the actual date is pending the decision of CBS-Television who recently indicated interest in telecasting a portion of the state pageant coast-to-coast. However, to get CBS television coverage the pageant would have to be held during the summer.

The local pageant committee will have available by next week a half-color slide story of last year's Miss America Pageant which may be borrowed by organizations wishing to present them at meetings and gatherings.

Visk and his wife, Joan, attended the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City last September.

The state pageant is an official preliminary under franchise from National Headquarters, and is governed by the same regulations and presented in the same manner as the Atlantic City event.

Information Available

Once the local headquarters is established, members of the executive committee will be available there to handle inquiries and distribute informative literature.

Associate directors recently appointed by Visk and Morton E. Gazlay, president of the Jaycees are: John Lawson, Dr. Oscar Sotsky, David Taylor and Albert Trowbridge.

George Moore is chairman of the Miss Ulster County Pageant.

Official Warning

BOSTON (AP) — The American Automobile Assn. endorsed a measure filed by a legislator which would ban hitchhiking. Said the AAA: "Two out of five thumbs raised to beg a ride have their prints on file with the police."

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Ever yearn for the glamorous life of an actress?

Well, take it from Barbara Bel Geddes, who has made a success on stage, screen and television, there is more hard work than glamor in a theatrical career. "When I first started," she recalled, "I thought it would be all fun — like appearing in a high school play. I didn't realize the discipline involved."

Always in Training
"You have to treat yourself like an athlete. You're always in training. You have to save yourself for those hours on the stage or before the cameras, when you'll need every bit of energy you possess."

Barbara is the daughter of the noted designer, Norman Bel Geddes.

Although Barbara enjoys Hollywood, she feels a Broadway star has one big advantage over a movie star.

"A stage star, unlike a film star, has privacy after she finishes her day's work. People don't bother her."

"I like that. After a show, I like to go home and live my own life. I like to put on a comfortable pair of shoes and breathe."

"The theater is in the theater. You don't have to take it home with you."

Looks Outdoor Type

Barbara, who is hazel-eyed and flaxen-haired, likes to dress casually in a skirt and close fitting blouse, open at the collar. She usually wears neither lipstick nor rouge.

"When I'm in a play," she explained, "I get sick of looking in the mirror as I put on makeup." She is fond of outdoor sports, and looks like the outdoor type. One of the worst problems of the acting profession, Barbara said, is the endless waiting.

"You can't just sit down and do a job by yourself as a painter does," she continued. "You have to wait for so many people. You have to wait for the playwright, the producer, the director, and the public."

Acting Never Boring

"But there is one wonderful thing about acting. It never really bores you."

Barbara is a woman who isn't sure just where she lives. She and her husband, Windsor Lewis, the stage director, have a 60-acre farm in Putnam County, New York; a 100-acre farm in County Galway, Ireland; and right now they are dwelling in a small house on the East Side in Manhattan.

In this menage they have two daughters, three turtles, two hamsters, a miniature marmoset monkey, two golden retrievers, a Maltese dog, two cats and 20 fish.

"By the time I get them all fed in the morning," said Barbara, "it's time to start preparing them lunch."

Evidence of Sack Dress Is Gone From Fashion Shows

By DOROTHY ROE
NEW YORK (AP)—There's not a sack in a carload of New York spring fashions, currently being previewed by the nation's fashion press.

Today's champions of the female form divine include designers Jo Copeland, Oleg Cassini and Ben Zuckerman. The only holdout of the season to date is Larry Aldrich, who has been beating the drums for the "relaxed" silhouette for now on to five years and still shows it, modified but recognizable.

Jo Copeland, the all-American designer who claims she never has taken a single cue from Paris, shows a feminine, flattering and strictly elegant group of daytime and evening fashions, the latter planned definitely for moonlight, roses and romance. Most dramatic of her evening gowns is a full-length sheath of white chiffon with jeweled midriff and floating panels, elegant as all get-out.

In a less formal mood is a short dance dress of black silk faille with a ruffled white eyelet embroidered petticoat, which is supposed to show.

Cassini goes happily back to his necklines as low as the law allows, insisting that "the bosom is here to stay."

Ben Zuckerman shows a well-bred, discreet and wearable group of superbly tailored suits and coats, the suits all with short jackets and slim skirts.

Jane Marie Eckert, Frederick C. DeGraff Engagement Told

WALKILL — Mr. and Mrs. George Eckert of Main Street, Walkill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Marie, to Frederick C. DeGraff of Roscoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeGraff of Gardiner.

Miss Eckert is a graduate of Walkill Central School, and is employed at the Walkill Office of the Valley National Bank. Mr. DeGraff is a graduate of New Paltz High School, and is employed by the West Delaware Tunnel Construction at Roscoe.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIS O. MARKLE, pictured at the piano in their apartment at Home for the Aged, find their duties there as managers very pleasant. Both are Kingstonians and graduates of Kingston High School. (Freeman photo)

New Managers of Home for Aged Named; Both Are Former Residents of Kingston

By DOROTHY A. NAREL

Two people, familiar to many in the Kingston area, have assumed duties as managers of the Home for the Aged on Washington Avenue. They are Mr. and Mrs. Willis O. Markle.

Their appointment was announced today by Mrs. Thomas W. Reynolds, president of the Board of Managers.

Mrs. Markle, whom many remember as the former Georgiana Clafin, has cheerfully taken in hand the many aspects of her position. Her interests in painting and music will do much to enhance the programs during the year for the residents of the home.

Mr. Markle, who for more than 25 years, was employed as a State photographer and then held a managerial position for the State, is an alumnus of Kingston High School.

"I was employed as a photographer by Pennington Studio," he said. "I then had my own place—a photo finishing studio—at 582 Broadway. It was after that that I entered the service of New York State."

Mrs. Markle, who was graduated from Kingston High School, received her BE and BO Degree from the Professional School of Education and Oration in Philadelphia, Pa. She was employed as a teacher in various settlement houses and private schools. She was also a member of the Lecture Board for the Board of Education in New York City.

Married 32 Years
Mr. and Mrs. Markle have been married 32 years. They met in Kingston and were married here. They have two children: W. Glenn Markle, 26, a graduate of the University of Syracuse now employed as claim adjuster for the New York Insurance Company. Glenn resides in New York City with his wife, Betty Joan.

The Markles' other son, David Wilsey, 20, is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Benning, Ga. He is an alumnus of Orange County Community College.

Warm Personalities
To really acquaint oneself with the Markles, it would be necessary to meet them personally as I have done. Their warm personalities envelope you as soon as you walk into the Home for the Aged. They have a great deal to offer the residents in the way of service and most of all, a feeling of friendship.

Their enthusiasm for their positions is wonderful. Although it is too soon to announce formally any definite programs, Mrs. Markle did hint (with a twinkle in her eye) that she would like very much to put on some short plays for the residents.

The residents of Home for the Aged are fortunate in having the Markles with them. They can certainly look forward to a happy association.

HANDICAPPED BY A BAD COLD

Dear Mrs. Post: Last evening some friends of ours dropped in unexpectedly to pay us a visit. I had a terrible cold and was in no mood to entertain guests. I had planned to "doctor" my cold and go to bed early. These friends usually stay quite late. When they arrived I explained that I had a terrible cold and was planning to go to bed early. They said they were sorry and left immediately. My husband thinks that I was very rude to them and that they in all probability would have left by themselves when they discovered I did not feel well. I would very much like to know if you think I was rude.

Answer: On the contrary, it was a kindness to tell them of your cold rather than to subject them to the danger of catching it.

On Repaying Their Obligation

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband and I have accepted an invitation to a large buffet supper that is being given by two couples. One couple we know well, but we have never met the other couple. Although the supper is a joint enterprise, the couple we do not know is having the party in their house. Is it necessary for us to invite both couples to our open house party two weeks later, or will we have repaid our social obligation by only issuing a single invitation to our friends?

Answer: It will not be necessary for you to invite the couple you do not yet know, but if at your open house you can easily find room for them it would be more polite to do so.

A Gift for the Flower Girl

Dear Mrs. Post: The gifts for my wedding attendants are all bought save one, which is something for my little niece, aged four, who is to be flower girl. What do you think I should buy for her? A piece of jewelry would be a nice remembrance, but at that age, what can I get her?

Answer: A locket or a charm bracelet would be most suitable.

Where should the reception for friends be held after the christening? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, her leaflet E-36, "The New Baby," includes the christening ceremony and reception. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

On A Diet?

The millions of Americans who annually suffer through the blitz method of dieting — and feel miserable about it — could take off more pounds and keep them off just by changing a few minor habits, Life magazine said today. The magazine adds that dieting has become so popular, so fast, that it is considered by many medical men to be a "national neurosis."

Because of the differences in body chemistry, rate of daily activity and a dozen other considerations, it's virtually impossible for any one diet to be suitable for any but specific cases. The trick is not diet at all. It consists mostly of just a "little more exercise and a little less food each day." This probably represents the sum total of all that is really known on the subject of overweight. If this method will not reduce your weight, nothing will.

Under no circumstances, reports the magazine, is it necessary to live on grapefruit and Melba toast. Nor is it necessary to suffer the torments of hunger, for it is no great hardship for most people to live on 500 fewer calories a day and lose a pound a week, or even to live on 1,000 fewer calories and lose two pounds a week.

The secret is "skipping on the fatty foods — bacon, butter, chocolate, cream, gravy, ice cream, olives, pastry, peanuts, salad dressing and sausages — and filling the void with fruit, melons and vegetables. You can stuff yourself with celery, sauerkraut or tomatoes to your heart's content every time you feel the slightest twinge of hunger and still stay well within an effective reducing diet.

The "seemingly most inconsequential changes in eating habits can make a profound difference in weight over the months and years. If one eats more calories than he burns up, they get stored at the rate of one extra pound of fat for every 3,500 calories.

A single extra slice of bread a day without butter (80 calories) will add eight pounds a year. An extra breakfast egg a day (85 calories) will add nine pounds a year, two tablespoons of heavy cream a day (100 calories) 10 pounds, a luncheon cocktail (150 calories) 15 pounds.

If two women of identical size do everything else alike — exactly the same daytime diet and the same amount of work — but one of them gets in the habit of eating a dish of ice cream before going to bed, this one will weigh 20 pounds more than the other at the end of the year.

A man who likes a piece of chocolate cake for dessert at lunch will weigh 40 pounds more at the end of the year than his friend of otherwise identical habits who likes grapefruit for dessert.

The trouble with dieting, is that it starts a cycle that almost inevitably leads the dieter to throwing off the shackles of self-control and gluttony himself. People discourage easily with "crash diets" that just don't peel off the poundage as fast as they are guaranteed to. They reconcile themselves to becoming overweight — "which they then proceed to do with considerable abandon."

Nobody who likes food well enough to get fat in the first place can live for long on grapefruit and melba toast, or bananas and skimmed milk. As a consequence: "The crash diet, so dear to the hearts of the women's page feature writers, has probably added more inches to more hips than any other culinary development since the first pig was roasted."

Sawyers Regain First in Debate

Despite a dreary fall season of also ran performances the Saugerties High School debate squad moved back into first place for cumulative performance and strength in upstate New York.

The monthly rankings are compiled by the National Forensic League with headquarters in Wisconsin. They are based on total numbers of participating members, and the number of degrees or points that they score in intrascholastic competition or service speeches. Saugerties has limited the number of NFL members to 40 with a freshman novice debate group under Paul Whiting gaining valuable experience for later promotion to the varsity competitive ranks.

Poughkeepsie is the perennial leader in NFL calculations because of its much larger enrollment. Last year the Sawyers became the first school to break

Billy Graham Under Study for Eye Trouble

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham was undergoing further tests today as Mayo Clinic specialists studied the serious eye ailment that brought an abrupt halt to the churchman's Southern tour.

The survey included a general physical examination to determine possible cause of a ruptured blood vessel behind the retina, which has cut Graham's vision 50 per cent in the left eye. He said it causes no pain.

An early diagnosis by the evangelist's doctor father-in-law, Dr. Nelson Bell, Montreat, N. C., called the malady both rare and serious. Dr. Bell said the condition had arisen from excessive work.

Grady Wilson, Graham associate who accompanied him here, said no report was expected before Friday.

Killing Criminals

suspended. He also denied Castro and Urrutia had met Tuesday. The secretary told reporters assigned to the presidential palace the executions in fact were continuing in accordance with due process of law.

Press Invited to Trials

But no specific instances of new activity by the firing squads were reported immediately.

Both the statement of the presidential secretary and of the press source Tuesday night said the names of the accused and the charges against them would be made available to newsmen. Reporters also were invited to cover the trials.

Earlier Tuesday Castro had defended the executions as "necessary to purify the nation." And Foreign Minister Roberto Agramonte said that unless the new regime meted out "fast justice," the public would take the law into its own hands to avenge the torture and murder of an estimated 20,000 Cubans by Batista police and soldiers.

Trials already had been suspended in Santiago, capital of Oriente province, where Castro's movement and Batista's repression were centered.

Most in Oriente

More than half the reported executions have occurred in Oriente, including the shooting of 71 persons in two batches early Monday, which the spokesman confirmed.

Reports of the executions aroused strong protests in the United States. One especially noted in Havana was made by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) in the Senate Monday. He called the executions blood baths that were not the way for the new regime to win free world support.

The average Cuban appeared to approve the killings, however, and revolutionary leaders at first defended their course.

"Why didn't the Americans attack when the Batista government was executing people en masse?" asked Castro in a speech to the Havana Lions Club.

Strike Threatens Sinclair, Union

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Both sides have refused to yield in wage negotiations between Sinclair Oil Co., and the union representing the firm's production and pipeline workers, a federal mediator says.

"It doesn't look too good," said the mediator, John E. Pennell, after Tuesday's joint talks ended in an impasse. He scheduled separate meetings today with negotiators for Sinclair and the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

Strike notices that expire at midnight Saturday have been filed by the union with Sinclair and with most of the other 600 oil plants with which the union has contracts. The union has 105,000 members employed in the industry, including 9,500 by Sinclair.

"Expiration of our notice permits us to strike on or after Jan. 18," said B. J. Schafer, OCAW vice president who is negotiating with Sinclair.

The union has asked Sinclair for a 25 cents-an-hour wage increase or for 21 cents an hour plus fringe benefits. Sinclair has not offered a wage increase. The average wage now is $2.71 an hour.

Nose Is Indication Of Climate, Expert Says

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—It's amazing what Ralph Riggs knows about noses.

"The nose of a Negro," says specialist Riggs, "is designed as an air cooler. The Caucasian's nose is an air heater."

Dr. Riggs, of Louisiana State University, got onto the subject while addressing a seminar on nose surgery Tuesday at the College of Medical Evangelists.

"You can pretty generally figure," he said, "the wider the nose the warmer the climate."

Another thing about noses. They are part of the mechanism the body uses to make you turn over at night.

"In 70 per cent of the cases," said Dr. Riggs, "I can tell what side a person sleeps on by examining his nose. Really."

"A person is directed by his nose to turn over every hour or so. One side of the nose takes it easy while the other side takes over the task of doing most of the breathing. If you sleep on one side more than the other it will show up in your nose."

Confesses She Struck Children, Used Razor

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. (AP)—An Englewood housewife told officers from a hospital bed Tuesday that she struck her three children with an iron bar, then slashed their throats with a razor before turning the blade on herself.

Mrs. Opal Wax, 28, and the children were taken to hospitals where doctors said all will recover. The eldest youngster, Marjorie, 9, suffered a fractured skull when struck by a 2½-pound trail-er hitch.

Police Sgt. Glenn Benson said Mrs. Wax told him she was despondent because her husband lost a leg in an accident two years ago and has been unemployed for long periods since then.

Middletown Soldier Is Absolved of Slaying

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army has released Pfc. George L. Lake of Middletown, N. Y., who had been held since October in connection with the murder of a German housewife.

A spokesman for the 24th Infantry Division said investigation had failed to turn up sufficient evidence to support charges against the 19-year-old soldier.

Lake was arrested after the body of Mrs. Margarete Schmitz, 30, was found in a forest near here frequented by soldiers and their German girl friends.

Police said an anonymous phone call had directed the investigation toward Lake. A key to Mrs. Schmitz' apartment was in his pocket.

Lake lives at 46 East Main St., in Middletown.

Boy, 14, Is Quizzed On 2 School Fires

CHICAGO (AP)—Police juvenile officers held a 14-year-old boy for questioning about two separate fires that broke out in a South Side public grade school during the lunch hour Tuesday.

A fire marshal said he believes a pupil started the blazes.

Firemen quickly put out the flames in two adjoining rooms on the first floor of the Shoop Elementary School on the far South Side. No one was injured, but about 40 teachers eating lunch and a few pupils who returned to class early were forced to flee the two-story brick building. Most of the 1,400 pupils were home for lunch.

The fire was the third reported in the school since Thanksgiving. The Shoop school is across the city from Our Lady of the Angels Parochial School, where 90 students and three nuns died in a fire Dec. 1.

AN UNSCHEDULED LOAD—The small tanker Samuel H. Herron, which ran aground off Tolchester in upper Chesapeake Bay, is virtually buried under tons of ice. The ice was heaped on her deck by tide and wind. Eighteen crewmen were taken off ship but remained on nearby craft to aid in refloating operations. (AP Wirephoto)

Nominates Mason For Housing Post

WASHINGTON (AP)—Norman P. Mason, now federal housing commissioner, was nominated today to be chief of the Housing and Home Finance Administration.

President Eisenhower picked Mason, 62-year-old Republican, to succeed Albert M. Cole, whose resignation from the government's top housing job was announced Tuesday.

Cole is going into private industry as executive vice president of Reynolds Aluminum Service Corp., a Reynolds Metals Co. subsidiary. His job will be to develop the use of aluminum in construction.

Mason has been commissioner of the Federal Housing Administration, biggest unit of FHHA, since 1954. He is a legal resident of Chelmsford, Mass.

Mason's selection is subject to Senate confirmation. In his new job he will get $21,000 a year—$1,000 more than he received as FHA commissioner.

Mason is a former chairman of the board of investment of the Central Savings Bank at Lowell, Mass.

Harvester Firm, UAW Sign Pact

CHICAGO (AP)—International Harvester Co. and the United Auto Workers union early today reached an agreement on a new three-year contract for 37,000 employees who have been on strike for two months.

Spokesmen for the company and union announced the agreement after a lengthy session that extended into the early morning hours.

The agreement, it ratified by UAW local Harvester councils at a meeting Friday, would end the strike, which has forced the shutdown of 15 Harvester plants, 7 parts depots and 3 transfer points.

Ratification by the workers would result in resumption of operations by Monday, a company spokesman said.

The principal gains in the new contract, the spokesmen said, were an annual pay increase of 6 cents an hour or 2½ per cent, whichever is greater, and the length of the new pact—three years.

Wages under the old contract averaged $2.55 an hour.

Local Jehovah's Witnesses Plan For Convention

Appointed Monday as department heads for a three-day circuit convention of Jehovah's Witnesses scheduled for early this spring were Ernest Kidd Jr. of Hurley, as assistant cafeteria director; Walter Carter of R. D. 5, Kingston, chairman of volunteer service; and H. D. Cowan of 19 Wiltwyck Avenue, assistant director of checkroom, lost and found department.

H. Daniel Trapp, circuit supervisor from the Witnesses' world headquarters in Brooklyn made the appointments officially and addressed the 21 department heads at a "kick-off" meeting held Monday night at Albany.

Though exact dates and place for the convention will not be announced until later, Trapp instructed that careful preparation should now begin under the direction of Richard G. Henry of Troy, convention manager.

Speaking to the group Henry instructed his 20 associates to organize and staff their departments to efficiently handle 1100 to 1300 people. "Arranging for housing and feeding that many people is only part of our work," he told the group. "It will take about one worker to each six persons in attendance," he said.

Having returned home from the Albany meeting, Kidd, Carter, and Cowan are contacting Witnesses from the local and nearby congregations to staff their departments and begin pre-convention work.

PARIS (AP)—The Ile de France was sold today to a Japanese company for scrap iron. The name of the Japanese company was not disclosed.

The luxury liner was retired last month after two decades of North Atlantic crossings.

Bridge Session

Termed Success

A fine entry was reported Tuesday evening for an officially sanctioned duplicate bridge session, sponsored by the Glenrie Bridge Club, at the Jewish Community Center.

The game was reportedly featured by fine performances by many local players competing in the first sanctioned duplicate game.

First place on the North-South side went to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Briggs of Poughkeepsie, one of the best and most experienced pairs in the Hudson Valley, but they won by only one match point over the second place pair, Mrs. Stanley London and Mrs. Christabel Wheatcroft.

Mrs. London was playing her first duplicate match and reportedly played right up to her experienced partner.

Third and fourth places produced a tie between Dr. and Mrs. Harry McNamara and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaud, all of Kingston.

First place in the East-West side went to Mrs. Harry Jacobs and Mrs. Boyd Williams, both of Kingston. Playing a forceful game, they won the first duplicate match they ever played.

Second place produced a tie between Mrs. Ruth Davis and Steve Pauker and Harry Pedowitz of Woodstock and Ronald Pedowitz of Saugerties. Mrs. Davis and her young partner reportedly played their first duplicate match. Fourth place went to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brooks of Hyde Park.

I. H. Wheatcroft, director, reported that he had received a number of inquiries from people who were interested in playing but felt they were not good enough. He pointed out that half of the 50 last night played their first duplicate.

Talks Stalemated

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP)—Collective bargaining talks were at a standstill in the 14-day-old Los Angeles supermarket strike-lockout today.

One thousand markets that normally handle 70 per cent of the food business in Los Angeles County are closed. Small neighborhood markets are working overtime to take up the slack.

The clerks ask 82½ cents an hour increase in wages and benefits over a five-year period; employers have offered a 30-cent package. Clerks earn $92 a week.

quired hospitalization. On Saturday, Jan. 3, he resumed his trip to the west coast by plane.

The community of Plattekill has already set the time as Nov. 1959, for their participation in the historical state and county celebration of the Hudson Champlain. The old Quaker Church, Mill Street, Plattekill, will be highlighted as a feature of the celebration. Information will be forthcoming, regarding the church.

The fourth quarterly conference was conducted at the Plattekill Methodist Church Thursday, Jan. 8, preceded by a covered dish supper in the church hall.

A sermon on the subject "Progress Unlimited," was given by the Rev. George Furnival at the regular worship services held in the Plattekill and Rossville Methodist Churches Sunday.

O. Clifford Stoneburgh, who died Friday, Jan. 9, at his home in Campbell Hall, has among his survivors, Capt. Charles Stoneburgh of the U. S. Army, stationed at Bremerhaven, Germany. Capt. Stoneburgh was a former resident of Plattekill, husband of Mrs. Mary Harris Stoneburgh of Plains Road, Walkkill.

Woodstock Polio Campaign In Appeal for Volunteers

With the Woodstock 1959 March of Dimes drive ready to begin, co-chairmen William Hand and Mrs. Chester Gaede today urged an appeal for volunteers for the annual Mothers March on Polio scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 31, at 9 a. m.

Volunteers may call Mrs. Gaede at her home any day after 6 p. m. Organizations as well as individuals are urged to contribute and help in any other way they can during the March of Dimes campaign.

Mr. Hand, who has headed the Polio Drive in Woodstock for the past nine years, announces last year's drive, due to the enthusiasm of our Woodstock residents and wonderful cooperation of the Mothers March, exceeded previous year's totals. Many other communities, because of the psychological "cushions" of the Salk vaccine, did not do as well. However, the threat has not been entirely eliminated. During 1958 there was a noticeable rise in polio cases in New York State.

Furthermore, this year the money raised by the March of Dimes will go also to cover research in the fields of crippling arthritis, virus diseases and in the causes of birth defects.

Committee Named

The co-chairmen announce the following people on their committee to date: Richard Chambers, band window display; Mrs. James Kinns, Teen Age participation; Dr. Paul Hamilton, sports events; Abe Kramer, typing and press releases; Mrs. Belden Hyatt, charge of canister collection; Mrs. Joseph H. Hordridge, funds; Mrs. Gertrude Russell and Mrs. Clifford Watson, coffee hostesses.

The area captains are: Mrs. Robert Hastie, Woodstock village; Mrs. Harry Kennedy Bears, Woodstock Meadows; Mrs. Victor D. Benedetto, Woodstock; Mrs. Mrs. Earnest Shute, Shady; Mrs. Asta Juell, Lake Hill; Mrs. Otto Sonnenberg, Willow, and Mrs. John Casey, Zena.

Mrs. Jean Gaede Sets Plans for Mothers March

Mrs. Jean Lasher Gaede, who with the late Mrs. Richard (Joan) Chambers, was co-chairman of Woodstock's highly successful Mothers March on Polio last year, has announced plans for the 1959 March in a letter to this column.

Mrs. Gaede's letter follows:

"Dear Woodstock: Perhaps you will recall that last year, the late Mrs. Richard (Joan) Chambers and I instituted, as co-chairmen, the Mothers March on Polio in Woodstock, under the March of Dimes program directed by William Hand.

"Due to the wonderful cooperation and warm interest of the women who made that first 'March' on a dark winter's night, and your generous contributions, we made last year's the largest donation ever to come out of our township. This in spite of the fact that due to the lulling comfort of the existence of the Salk vaccine, other communities were falling short of their previous efforts. It was a rewarding personal experience . . . that first Woodstock Mothers March.

"Again Mr. Hand has asked me to work as co-chairman with myself for the March of Dimes Drive of 1959.

"This year, when the Mothers March again, the monies will not only go to cover the rehabilitation of polio patients, but will stretch out to include the study and care of crippling arthritis, research in the cases of birth defects and virus diseases. There is not a family among us who will remain untouched by one or more facets of this broadened program.

"Any of you as individuals or organizations who wish to assist in our Mothers March, please contact me, evenings by telephone. The actual drive is scheduled for Saturday, Jan. 31, at 9 a. m.

"I need much help from many of you in order to do this job. I truly wish to do it 'proud' as a salute to the courage of my friend, Joan Chambers. Sincerely . . . Jean Lasher Gaede. . . ."

'Anointing of David' Topic for Rev. Olson

The Rev. Wayne C. Olson will preach on the sermon topic: "The Anointing of David" at the Sunday, Jan. 18, worship at 11 a. m. at the Woodstock Reformed Church. Based on I Samuel 16:1-13, the key text is I Samuel 16:7—"Man looketh on the outward appearance, but I the Lord looketh on the heart."

Pastor Olson will demonstrate how God, unlike man, never jumps to conclusions. The Senior Choir will sing under the direction of Mrs. Richard Braen. The choir is still in need of soprano and bass voices and Mrs. Braen extends an invitation to any person in the area who likes to sing to join the choir. Visitors are always welcome to the services. A nursery is provided for small children.

Sunday School convenes at 9:30 a. m. There are classes for all age groups, including adults.

'The Servants Knew' Text for Rev. Sands

The marriage at Cana of Galilee furnishes the text for the sermon the Rev. G. Oliver Sands plans to preach in Christ Lutheran Church in Woodstock on the second Sunday after Epiphany—Jan. 18 at the 11 a. m. service.

His theme is taken from the verse—St. John 2:9—in which the statement is made that the "ruler of the feast tasted the water that was wine and knew not whence it was, but the servants who drew the water knew."

Thus the theme is "The Servants Knew"—we as servants of our God and Father are shown certain things and, if we follow Him we know what is not shown to others. We know even if we can't understand it all.

Sunday School meets at 9:45 a. m., with the adult class considering "Greatness in the Kingdom" as based on Mark 10:32-45 and John 13:1-17.

The Young Women's Guild meets at the home of Mrs. Albert Holmstrom in Zena on Monday, Jan. 19.

The Church Council meets at the church on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

The Reformed Church Is Mid-Week Lecture

The Rev. Wayne C. Olson, pastor of Woodstock Reformed Church, will speak on the topic: "The Beginning of the Reformed Church in America" at its regular midweek meeting of the congregation on Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 7:30 p. m.

It will be shown how the Hudson Valley was settled by Netherlands who brought with them their spiritual enthusiasm, thus accounting for the numerous Dutch Reformed churches in the area. These meetings are open to all people, especially those who wish to learn more about the Reformed Church, its beliefs, its history and its activities.

Town Board Meeting Scheduled Thursday

Woodstock Town Board holds its monthly meeting Thursday night at Town Hall at 8 o'clock. This is the first of the board's monthly meetings which will be held on fixed date—the third Thursday of the month—in compliance with a resolution adopted at the December meeting.

Agenda for the meeting has not been announced, but the question of cutting of trees by the state highway department is expected to come up.

Mikoyan Visits 'Capitalist' Area

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan puts an expert finger on the pulse of the American financial system today. He is to lunch in Wall Street with bankers.

The return of the top Soviet trade expert to New York Tuesday night provoked relatively little disturbance.

Although several hundred anti-Communist European refugees had been alerted for picket duty at Idlewild Airport, only about 20 showed up. They were herded off by police to a distant parking lot behind a wire fence, too far away for Mikoyan to see their placards.

An ominous warning followed Mikoyan from Los Angeles, where he capped a whirlwind tour across the country. Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker said Tuesday night that foreign intelligence sources warned him Mikoyan "would not be allowed to leave this country alive."

Parker did not elaborate. Hundreds of police swarmed over Idlewild to form a precautionary security blanket exceeded only by safety measures accorded the President of the United States.

Mikoyan was greeted at the airport by Arkady Sobolev, Soviet ambassador to the United Nations, and Richard C. Patterson, New York City commissioner of commerce and public events.

A police escort led Mikoyan's limousine to the Russian U. N. delegation headquarters at Park Avenue.

Propose Program To Aid Commuter

CHICAGO (AP)—Here's a hopeful piece of news for you, Mr. Commuter.

Many people in high places are thinking of ways to help you.

It's a bad situation and the prospect is even worse. Motor vehicle traffic is approaching the saturation point in the scores of cities. And the main trend in the nation's growing population is toward the huge urban centers.

So 29 men—16 railroad presidents and 13 mayors and other city officials—got together Tuesday to exchange ideas on how to solve the commuter problem. Most of the railroads contend they make no profit in operating the commuter lines.

Here are some of the suggestions:

Government subsidies.

New equipment to lure motorists back to the rails.

A federal agency to buy equipment and lease it to the rail lines or to lend them money to buy modern rolling stock.

Elimination of the federal tax on commutation tickets.

Provision for deducting commutation fares from federal income taxes.

Giving the railroads a better break on their taxes, allowing them more freedom in setting fares, adding or removing trains and closing unprofitable stations.

A new U. S. transportation policy that would encourage the growth of railroads.

A committee of 12 was appointed to meet within the next 30 days to start work on a program.

Uhl Paces KHS With 23 Points

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

Coach John Gilligan can give thanks today that his sophomore ace Joe Uhl was able to suit up and play last night. The Blonde Bomber scored 23 points in a superb show at the Kate Walton field house to lead Kingston to its sixth win in seven starts, a 58-51 decision over scrappy Monticello. The triumph boosts the local five into undisputed possession of second place, one game behind the Newburgh Goldbacks, who squeezed by Port Jervis last night.

The standings:

Team	W	L
Newburgh	7	0
Kingston	6	1
Liberty	4	2
Monticello	4	2
Port Jervis	3	3
Poughkeepsie	2	4
Ellenville	2	4
Middletown	0	6
Fallsburgh	0	6

Uhl, who injured his ankle in a losing cause last week at Newburgh, was the difference against the Monties. In addition to his clutch pointmaking, he played a tremendous all-around game to spark the Maroon five. Joining Uhl with standout performances were John Kelly, who played his best game of the season, and Bobbie Short, a magician in the backcourt.

Always Ahead

Kingston was ahead all the way and there was very little doubt about the outcome. The club jumped ahead 11-1 in the first five and a half minutes as the visitors had trouble hitting the mark. The count was narrowed to 18-13 by the end of the period and the lead was between three and ten points the rest of the game.

However, Monticello made it close in the last quarter. A jump shot by John Anthony with six minutes left in the game made it 44-38. After Charley Williams hit with a foul shot and Uhl scored a two pointer for the locals, Dick Stratton hit with a basket for the Monties. Then Kelly zoomed the lead to ten points as he made three straight foul shots. That made it 50-40, with 4:40 left to play.

The Monties weren't through yet. Ken Morrison made a foul shot and after Uhl hit with a driving layup, Armstead bucketed a jump and Stratton was successful with a one-hander to narrow the margin to 51-45. That was the closest the visitors got as Short made three fouls and Uhl a layup.

Short Fracas

With two minutes to play, Anthony and Uhl were ejected from the contest for starting a fracas. The Monticello captain hit Uhl hard as he went in for a layup and Joe fell to the floor. The scuffle was a short one and only one punch was thrown before Referee John Antonucci and Vince Leo stopped it. Uhl had ten field goals and three foul shots for his 23 markers. Kelly, who went all the way in a fine show, made five buckets and three charity tosses. Short also had 13 points, seven of them from the free throw line. Stratton and Anthony had 25 of Monticello's points. The Monties, who started the season with four straight victories, have now dropped two straight and are down from cloud seven. To make matters worse, they have Newburgh to contend with Friday night.

Albany State Trims Oneonta

Albany State, beaten by Siena Saturday, took out its vengeance on Oneonta State last night by pinning the first defeat on the Red Dragons, 68-65. Oneonta had won seven straight. The Peds, who shot 54 per cent (16-30) in the first half to gain a 38-33 advantage, managed to stay in front in the second half on a deliberate attack. Victory was the eighth in 10 starts for the Albanians.

Capt. Gary Holway, who played in the Kingston tourney with the Pine Plains Bombardiers, caged 17 points for scoring honors and grabbed 16 of State's 37 rebounds.

Rev. Hesburgh Defends Terry Brennan Ouster

CHICAGO (AP) — Terry Brennan's dismissal as head football coach does not mean that Notre Dame is turning into a football factory, says Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, university president.

In a copyrighted article appearing in a national magazine (Sports Illustrated), Father Hesburgh defended the school's action in firing Brennan and hiring Joe Kuharich as a change for the better.

He called the move a "commitment to excellence, and the judgment that the performance would be bettered by the change."

Apparently irked over publicity given the matter, Father Hesburgh said:

"While I can appreciate the wide national interest in sports, I think it somewhat of an inversion of values that a university can appoint 20 distinguished professors, make broad and significant changes in academic personnel to achieve greater excellence, without attracting more than a slight ripple of attention.

"But let the same university make a well-considered change in athletic personnel for the same reason, and it sparks the ill-considered charge that it is no longer a first-rate academic institution and must henceforth be considered a football factory."

The recommendation to fire Brennan, said Father Hesburgh, was "made unanimously by the faculty board in control of athletics at its regular December meeting. The director of athletics (Moose Krause), while he does not have a vote in these matters, did agree with their recommendation.

"I studied their reasons, discussed them with some trusted counselors here and made my decision on the same basis that I would decide any change in university personnel."

No-Can-Do Loop Files 100 Per Cent Entry

The No-Can-Do bowling league, one of the city's oldest, has retained its distinction of being the first league to enter its entire roster in the Kingston Bowling Association tournament.

Tournament director Larry Petersen, Jr. has announced receipt of entry fees for all 8 No-Can-Do teams.

Petersen warned that deadline for reserved dates is midnight Saturday, Jan. 24. Entries close at midnight Feb. 1.

League secretaries are reminded that they must file averages as of Jan. 1 with the KBA. Twelve games constitute the minimum for individual averages.

All bowlers and leagues in the KBA are reminded that this is the annual March of Dimes week. It will run through Saturday.

Kingston Star Averages 197 In Eliminations

Despite the fact he ran into trouble yesterday, Jerry Oster advanced to the semi-finals of the All Star Bowling championships in Buffalo as he placed 87th in the eliminations. The top 94 keglers in the men's division qualified for the semi-finals, which will be rolled to-day.

Oster could only manage 1,056 sticks yesterday to bring his total for the 24 games to 4,660 or an average of 197. His lines for the six games yesterday were 187-159-186-169-181-174. The Kingston ace was scheduled to roll at 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. today in hopes of reaching the finals of the tourney.

The men will roll two six-game blocks today. Thursday the top 14, plus Don Carter and Buzz Fazio of St. Louis, 1958 champion and runner-up respectively, who are seeded into the finals, will roll.

Bluth Paces Field

Ray Bluth, star of the St. Louis Budweisers, leads the 94 men into the semifinals. Bluth finished 24 games of qualifying action Tuesday with a 214 average and a total of 5,148 in the four days. In his final six-game block, he rolled a series of 195-244-186-212-237-212-1,286. Lou Campi of Dumont, N. J., who had a 1,275 series for a 24-game total of 5,126, was second. Billy Wulu of the St. Louis Falstaffs took third spot with 5,107.

Gus Horvodel and Joe Donato, two of Albany's three representatives, gained the semi-finals but Frankie Ferris, the third, missed by less than 50 pins. Another keglar eliminated was Don Rampe of Liberty. Horvodel fired 4,682 for the 24 games and Donato had 4,712. Ferris had 4,589 and the cutoff was 4,633.

The Kingston Colonials

A Baseball Legend (1921-27)

By CHARLES J. TIANO
Freeman Sports Editor

The first Colonial team played 42 games, winning 35, losing 6 and playing a memorable 8-inning, 3-3 tie against Big Ed Walsh's Onteora Giants which broke up in a row at the Athletic Field on Aug. 31, 1921.

Some historians insist it was the last game the Hall of Famer pitched. If that be true, it was a turbulent climax to one of the most brilliant careers in all of baseball history.

Walsh was infuriated by a balk called on him by the late Pete Jordan, an umpire who was to be the center of many a stormy argument before he called his last game for the Colonials. Walsh stormed up and down the diamond in a towering rage, claiming he had not committed a balk on a motion toward a base which was not occupied. Jordan insisted with equal firmness that the Old Master had balked and, of course, the umpire won.

Pulls Team Off Field

Walsh stalked off the field with one out in the bottom of the 8th after the Colonials had tied the score 3-3 on a double by Artie Rice and Leo Fitzgerald's single, after Bud Culloton was called out for bunting foul on third strike. Fireman Joe Scanlon relieved Walsh on a popup to third. When the inning was over, Walsh, the old White Sox immortal, pulled the Onteora team off the field and headed for the Otsego hills.

Culloton went the distance for the Colonials, yielding 11 hits but survived two shaky innings. He didn't issue a base on balls and struck out 8. Walsh permitted six hits in his 7 1/3 inning stay on the mound and whiffed five. Artie Rice, the aging third sacker of the Colonials, connected for two key doubles off Walsh, both of which figured in the Kingston scoring.

Onteora's leadoff—Baird—slammed two triples off Culloton, leading off with a triple and

St. Louis Wins, Pistons on Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If St. Louis Hawks' owner Ben Kerner needs a clincher to be sure of that five-year contract he offered Coach Ed MacAuley Tuesday then he need look no further than Tuesday night's game with Minneapolis.

The Hawks defeated the Lakers, 110-95, in the second game of a National Basketball Assn. double-header after the Detroit Pistons drubbed Cincinnati 112-92, and the Hawks did it in typical MacAuley style.

The Lakers were without their rookie ace Elgin Baylor, out with a sore throat. Another rookie, Boo Ellis, took up the scoring slack with 18 points.

Cliff Hagan, with 25, and Bob Pettit, with 23, led the Hawks.

The Royals went down to their 32nd defeat as Phil Jordan led Detroit with 24 points. Jim Palmer topped Cincinnati with 14 points.

Louisville Gets Upset Victory Over Bradley

By BEN OLAN

The University of Louisville has been going down the college basketball ladder steadily since putting together a 21-5 mark two years ago. But once in a while the Cardinals spring a surprise.

Tuesday night was a case in point, when they beat seventh-ranked Bradley 79-66.

And it was a comparatively easy victory, too. Bradley trailed by four points at the intermission, eight shortly after halftime and by four again a few minutes later. But then Louisville's John Turner and Roger Tieman began connecting with long set shots from the side and the Cardinals pulled away. Tieman led the scoring with 20 points.

West Virginia was the only other team among the top 10 in set action and the 10th-rated Mountaineers came through handsomely by trimming William and Mary 88-76 for their 42nd consecutive Southern Conference victory.

The Mountaineers, seeking their fifth straight conference title, put their league record for the season at 6-0.

Army Refusal To Play Bowl Games Is Factor

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) —

Army today began the long quest for a new football coach and athletic director while failing to throw a clue on the mystery of why a coach on top of the world should abruptly quit.

Earl (Red) Blaik, fresh from an undefeated season and the toast of the coaching set for his "lonely" offense last year, resigned Tuesday, effective Feb. 15, his 62nd birthday, after 18 years with Army.

His only reason: "This is the proper time to withdraw from college sports, as to overstay a coaching career is unthinkable."

Open Race

To a man, Army brass said they were caught completely flatfooted. One high West Point officer said: "We were so surprised that we have no one else in mind. We're wide open for all applications."

There are several theories about Blaik's resignation. It has been said he has a bad stomach and the steadily increasing pressures of the game are getting to be too much. It has also been said he was at the end of his rope trying to convince the brass Army should play post-season bowl games and thus gain additional prestige. And it has been said he wanted to be able to have prospective players tutored before taking the entrance examinations just as Navy has been doing.

Bowl Picture

The last two offer the most logical reasons. At the end of last season, when Army compiled a record of eight victories, no defeats and one tie, the Cadets were certain bowl timber. But the policy of higher ups was against it.

As for the tutoring of players before entrance, the NCAA acknowledged last week that the service academies had special problems and therefore could see no harm in the tutoring. It is possible Blaik pointed this out to the brass, got a turnaround and decided to call it quits.

After expressing his regrets at leaving the Academy, and pointing out the strong position of Army sports, Blaik said:

"At the present time, there is no personal commitment to any future plan, though within a reasonable time I shall accept one of several opportunities either in television or business. Right now, Mrs. Blaik and I are going to take a short vacation."

Car Wash, Accord Win 'B' Contests

Amato's led for three periods last night at the YMCA court in an attempt to knock Minute Car Wash out of first place in the "Y" B league. However, the minutemen rallied in the fourth period to win, 48-43. In the other tilt, Accord won a 43-32 tussle from Pride.

Mel Williams led the minutemen as they used last minute heroics to record the win. Tricky Mel netted 15 points. Jim Ferraro scored 14 for the losers.

Werner Wustrau made 17 points as Accord had an easy time with Pride.

Football Rules Committee To Draft Substitution Rule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The NCAA Football Rules Committee is drafting a new rule liberalizing substitutions in football.

As the rule reads now, a player may return to the field only once in any quarter. The committee is framing the rule so that it will be liberalized for the benefit of the small colleges.

"We are not going all the way to unlimited substitution," said Acting Chairman H. O. (Fritz) Crisler of Michigan. "That would allow two platoons. We don't want that, but we want to free the rule so that the small colleges can get a single man in the game with greater ease."

The smaller colleges are concerned, for example, with a possible injury to a quarterback, but they don't want platoons. A subcommittee headed by Dr. Ellwood Geiges, secretary of the rules committee, will make one of three reports expected to come before the NCAA closing session today.

A subcommittee also is to report on whether goal posts are to stay where they are at the end of the field. Rather than place the crossbar at the goal line, the subcommittee is likely to widen the uprights, which would tend to encourage field goals.

The third report is on clarification of the use of hand and forearm in blocking. Crisler says there is considerable confusion by officials in interpreting the rule, which calls for one-arm offensive blocking.

Times Have Changed

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey was paid $5 early in his ring career for stopping two ring opponents here in a total of 39 seconds. The exhibition was part of a theater tour.

Football was not invented but was an outgrowth of early Greek and Roman games.

Liberty Tops Fallsburgh

Liberty's Indians scored 27 points in a blistering first period attack and then toyed with hapless Fallsburgh the rest of the way to register a 53-33 win.

Josh Gerow, the big center, led Liberty with 24 points. Al Kunis and Skip Carnesi had 13 each for the Comets.

Liberty led at the quarter stops, 27-9, 36-15, 39-27.
